Part 4

Utah Health Care Malpractice Act

78B-3-401 Title.

This part shall be known and may be cited as the "Utah Health Care Malpractice Act."

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-3-402 Legislative findings and declarations -- Purpose of act.

- (1) The Legislature finds and declares that the number of suits and claims for damages and the amount of judgments and settlements arising from health care has increased greatly in recent years. Because of these increases the insurance industry has substantially increased the cost of medical malpractice insurance. The effect of increased insurance premiums and increased claims is increased health care cost, both through the health care providers passing the cost of premiums to the patient and through the provider's practicing defensive medicine because he views a patient as a potential adversary in a lawsuit. Further, certain health care providers are discouraged from continuing to provide services because of the high cost and possible unavailability of malpractice insurance.
- (2) In view of these recent trends and with the intention of alleviating the adverse effects which these trends are producing in the public's health care system, it is necessary to protect the public interest by enacting measures designed to encourage private insurance companies to continue to provide health-related malpractice insurance while at the same time establishing a mechanism to ensure the availability of insurance in the event that it becomes unavailable from private companies.
- (3) In enacting this act, it is the purpose of the Legislature to provide a reasonable time in which actions may be commenced against health care providers while limiting that time to a specific period for which professional liability insurance premiums can be reasonably and accurately calculated; and to provide other procedural changes to expedite early evaluation and settlement of claims.

Evidence may not be received and a reduction may not be made with respect to future collateral source benefits except as specified in Subsection (5).
- (3) For purposes of this section "collateral source" means payments made to or for the benefit of the plaintiff for:
 - (a) medical expenses and disability payments payable under the United States Social Security Act, any federal, state, or local income disability act, or any other public program, except the federal programs which are required by law to seek subrogation;
 - (b) any health, sickness, or income replacement insurance, automobile accident insurance that provides health benefits or income replacement coverage, and any other similar insurance benefits, except life insurance benefits available to the plaintiff, whether purchased by the plaintiff or provided by others;
 - (c) any contract or agreement of any person, group, organization, partnership, or corporation to provide, pay for, or reimburse the costs of hospital, medical, dental, or other health care services, except benefits received as gifts, contributions, or assistance made gratuitously; and
 - (d) any contractual or voluntary wage continuation plan provided by employers or any other system intended to provide wages during a period of disability.

- (4) To preserve subrogation rights for amounts paid or received prior to settlement or judgment, a provider of collateral sources shall, at least 30 days before settlement or trial of the action, serve a written notice upon each health care provider against whom the malpractice action has been asserted. The written notice shall state:
 - (a) the name and address of the provider of collateral sources;
 - (b) the amount of collateral sources paid;
 - (c) the names and addresses of all persons who received payment; and
 - (d) the items and purposes for which payment has been made.
- (5) Evidence is admissible of government programs that provide payments or benefits available in the future to or for the benefit of the plaintiff to the extent available irrespective of the recipient's ability to pay. Evidence of the likelihood or unlikelihood that the programs, payments, or benefits will be available in the future is also admissible. The trier of fact may consider the evidence in determining the amount of damages awarded to a plaintiff for future expenses.
- (6) A provider of collateral sources is not entitled to recover any amount of benefits from a health care provider, the plaintiff, or any other person or entity as reimbursement for collateral source payments made prior to settlement or judgment, including any payments made under Title 26, Chapter 19, Medical Benefits Recovery Act, except to the extent that subrogation rights to amounts paid prior to settlement or judgment are preserved as provided in this section.
- (7) All policies of insurance providing benefits affected by this section are construed in accordance with this section.

78B-3-406 Failure to obtain informed consent -- Proof required of patient -- Defenses -- Consent to health care.

- (1) When a person submits to health care rendered by a health care provider, it is presumed that actions taken by the health care provider are either expressly or impliedly authorized to be done. For a patient to recover damages from a health care provider in an action based upon the provider's failure to obtain informed consent, the patient must prove the following:
 - (a) that a provider-patient relationship existed between the patient and health care provider;
 - (b) the health care provider rendered health care to the patient;
 - (c) the patient suffered personal injuries arising out of the health care rendered;
 - (d) the health care rendered carried with it a substantial and significant risk of causing the patient serious harm;
 - (e) the patient was not informed of the substantial and significant risk;
 - (f) a reasonable, prudent person in the patient's position would not have consented to the health care rendered after having been fully informed as to all facts relevant to the decision to give consent; and
 - (g) the unauthorized part of the health care rendered was the proximate cause of personal injuries suffered by the patient.
- (2) In determining what a reasonable, prudent person in the patient's position would do under the circumstances, the finder of fact shall use the viewpoint of the patient before health care was provided and before the occurrence of any personal injuries alleged to have arisen from said health care.
- (3) It shall be a defense to any malpractice action against a health care provider based upon alleged failure to obtain informed consent if:
 - (a) the risk of the serious harm which the patient actually suffered was relatively minor;

- (b) the risk of serious harm to the patient from the health care provider was commonly known to the public;
 - (c) the patient stated, prior to receiving the health care complained of, that he would accept the health care involved regardless of the risk; or that he did not want to be informed of the matters to which he would be entitled to be informed;
 - (d) the health care provider, after considering all of the attendant facts and circumstances, used reasonable discretion as to the manner and extent to which risks were disclosed, if the health care provider reasonably believed that additional disclosures could be expected to have a substantial and adverse effect on the patient's condition; or
 - (e) the patient or his representative executed a written consent which sets forth the nature and purpose of the intended health care and which contains a declaration that the patient accepts the risk of substantial and serious harm, if any, in hopes of obtaining desired beneficial results of health care and which acknowledges that health care providers involved have explained his condition and the proposed health care in a satisfactory manner and that all questions asked about the health care and its attendant risks have been answered in a manner satisfactory to the patient or his representative.
- (4) The written consent shall be a defense to an action against a health care provider based upon failure to obtain informed consent unless the patient proves that the person giving the consent lacked capacity to consent or shows by clear and convincing evidence that the execution of the written consent was induced by the defendant's affirmative acts of fraudulent misrepresentation or fraudulent omission to state material facts.
- (5) This act may not be construed to prevent any person 18 years of age or over from refusing to consent to health care for his own person upon personal or religious grounds.
- (6) Except as provided in Section 76-7-304.5, the following persons are authorized and empowered to consent to any health care not prohibited by law:
- (a) any parent, whether an adult or a minor, for the parent's minor child;
 - (b) any married person, for a spouse;
 - (c) any person temporarily standing in loco parentis, whether formally serving or not, for the minor under that person's care and any guardian for the guardian's ward;
 - (d) any person 18 years of age or over for that person's parent who is unable by reason of age, physical or mental condition, to provide such consent;
 - (e) any patient 18 years of age or over;
 - (f) any female regardless of age or marital status, when given in connection with her pregnancy or childbirth;
 - (g) in the absence of a parent, any adult for the adult's minor brother or sister; and
 - (h) in the absence of a parent, any grandparent for the grandparent's minor grandchild.
- (7) A person who in good faith consents or authorizes health care treatment or procedures for another as provided by this act may not be subject to civil liability.

78B-3-414 Periodic payment of future damages in malpractice actions.

- (1) In any malpractice action against a health care provider, as defined in Section 78B-3-403, the court shall, at the request of any party, order that future damages which equal or exceed $100,000, less amounts payable for attorney fees and other costs which are due at the time of judgment, shall be paid by periodic payments rather than by a lump sum payment.
- (2) In rendering a judgment which orders the payment of future damages by periodic payments, the court shall order periodic payments to provide a fair correlation between the sustaining of losses and the payment of damages.
 - (a) Lost future earnings shall be paid over the judgment creditor's work life expectancy.
 - (b) The court shall also order, when appropriate, that periodic payments increase at a fixed rate, equal to the rate of inflation which the finder of fact used to determine the amount of future damages, or as measured by the most recent Consumer Price Index applicable to Utah for all goods and services.
 - (c) The present cash value of all periodic payments shall equal the fact finder's award of future damages, less any amount paid for attorney fees and costs.
 - (d) The present cash value of periodic payments shall be determined by discounting the total amount of periodic payments projected over the judgment creditor's life expectancy, by the rate of interest which the finder of fact used to reduce the amount of future damages to present value, or the rate of interest available at the time of trial on one year U.S. Government Treasury Bills.
- (3) Before periodic payments of future damages may be ordered, the court shall require a judgment debtor to post security which assures full payment of those damages. Security for payment of a judgment of periodic payments may be in one or more of the following forms:
 - (a) a bond executed by a qualified insurer;
 - (b) an annuity contract executed by a qualified insurer;
 - (c) evidence of applicable and collectable liability insurance with one or more qualified insurers;
 - (d) an agreement by one or more qualified insurers to guarantee payment of the judgment; or
 - (e) any other form of security approved by the court.
- (4) Security which complies with this section may also serve as a supersedeas bond, where one is required.
- (5) A judgment which orders payment of future damages by periodic payments shall specify the recipient or recipients of the payments, the dollar amount of the payments, the interval between payments, and the number of payments or the period of time over which payments shall be made. Those payments may only be modified in the event of the death of the judgment creditor.

- (6) If the court finds that the judgment debtor, or the assignee of his obligation to make periodic payments, has failed to make periodic payments as ordered by the court, it shall, in addition to the required periodic payments, order the judgment debtor or his assignee to pay the judgment creditor all damages caused by the failure to make payments, including court costs and attorney fees.
- (7) The obligation to make periodic payments for all future damages, other than damages for loss of future earnings, shall cease upon the death of the judgment creditor. Damages awarded for loss of future earnings may not be reduced or payments terminated by reason of the death of the judgment creditor, but shall be paid to persons to whom the judgment creditor owed a duty of support, as provided by law, immediately prior to his death. In that case the court which rendered the original judgment may, upon petition of any party in interest, modify the judgment to award and apportion the unpaid future damages in accordance with this section.
- (8) If security is posted in accordance with Subsection (3), and approved by a final judgment entered under this section, the judgment is considered to be satisfied, and the judgment debtor on whose behalf the security is posted shall be discharged.

- (1)
 - (a) The panel shall issue an opinion and the division shall issue a certificate of compliance with the pre-litigation hearing requirements of this part in accordance with this section.
 - (b) A certificate of compliance issued in accordance with this section is proof that the claimant has complied with all conditions precedent under this part prior to the commencement of litigation as required in Subsection 78B-3-412(1).
 - (c)
 - (i) Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, any party in a medical malpractice action or arbitration hearing may request a prelitigation panel review as to a health care provider and obtain a certificate of compliance for that specific, individual health care provider for the purpose of allocating fault to that health care provider. A party in a medical malpractice action or arbitration hearing may not attempt to allocate fault to any health care provider unless a certificate of compliance has been issued in accordance with this section for that specific, individual health care provider. A health care provider exempted from the requirement of a prelitigation hearing by statute or an arbitration agreement, may nevertheless be joined in a prelitigation hearing to satisfy the requirements of this section. Participation in a prelitigation hearing may not waive any right to enforce an arbitration agreement.

- (a) The panel shall render its opinion in writing not later than 30 days after the end of the proceedings, and determine on the basis of the evidence whether:

 - (c) the claimant has complied with the provisions of Subsections 78B-3-416(3)(c) and (d); or
 - (d) the parties submitted a stipulation under Subsection 78B-3-416(3)(e).

- (2) No panelist may be compelled to testify in a civil action subsequently filed with regard to the subject matter of the panel's review. A panelist has immunity from civil liability arising from participation as a panelist and for all communications, findings, opinions, and conclusions made in the course and scope of duties prescribed by this section.
- (3) Nothing in this chapter may be interpreted to prohibit the division from considering any information contained in a statutory notice of intent to commence action, request for prelitigation panel review, or written findings of a panel with respect to the division's determining whether a licensee engaged in unprofessional or unlawful conduct.

Part 4 Inherent Risks of Skiing

78B-4-401 Public policy.

The Legislature finds that the sport of skiing is practiced by a large number of residents of Utah and attracts a large number of nonresidents, significantly contributing to the economy of this state. It further finds that few insurance carriers are willing to provide liability insurance protection to ski area operators and that the premiums charged by those carriers have risen sharply in recent years due to confusion as to whether a skier assumes the risks inherent in the sport of skiing. It is the purpose of this act, therefore, to clarify the law in relation to skiing injuries and the risks inherent in that sport, to establish as a matter of law that certain risks are inherent in that sport, and to provide that, as a matter of public policy, no person engaged in that sport shall recover from a ski operator for injuries resulting from those inherent risks.

(2) The parties may agree upon the money to be used in a transaction giving rise to a foreign-money claim and may use different money for different aspects of the transaction. Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-5-405 Determining the money of the claim.

(1) Except as provided by Subsection (2), the proper money of the claim is, as in each case may be appropriate, the money:

(b) used at the time of a transaction in international trade, by trade usage or common practice, for valuing or settling transactions in the particular commodity or service involved; or

(c) in which the loss was ultimately felt or will be incurred by a party.

- (2) If an amount contracted to be paid in a foreign money is to be measured by a different money at the exchange rate prevailing on a date prior to default, that exchange rate applies only for payments made a reasonable time after default, not to exceed 30 days. Thereafter, conversion is made at the bank-offered spot rate on the conversion date.
- (3)
 - (a) A monetary claim is neither usurious nor unconscionable because the agreement on which it is based provides that the amount of the debtor's obligation to be paid in the debtor's money shall, when received by the creditor, equal a specified amount of the foreign money of the country of the creditor.
 - (b) If because of unexcused delay in payment of a judgment or award the amount received by the creditor does not equal the amount of the foreign money specified in the agreement, the court or arbitrator, as the case may be, has jurisdiction to and may amend the judgment or award accordingly.

- (3) Any party may assert a defense, set-off, recoupment, or counterclaim in any money without regard to the money of other claims.

- (5) Judgments or awards made in an action on both:
 - (a) a defense, set-off, recoupment, or counterclaim; and
 - (b) the adverse party's claim, must be netted by converting the money of the smaller into the money of the larger, and by subtracting the smaller from the larger, and must specify the rates of exchange used.
- (6) A judgment substantially in the following form complies with Subsection (1):

IT IS ADJUDGED AND ORDERED that Defendant (insert name) pay to Plaintiff (insert name) the sum of (insert amount in the foreign money) plus interest on that sum at the rate of (insert rate - see Section 78B-5-410) percent a year or, at the option of the judgment debtor, the number of United States dollars as will purchase the (insert name of foreign money) with interest due, at a bank-offered spot rate at or near the close of business on the banking day next before the day of payment, together with assessed costs of (insert amount) United States dollars.

- (8) A judgment shall be filed in the judgment docket and indexed in foreign money in the same manner, and shall have the same effect as a lien as other judgments. It may be discharged by payment.
- (9) A person shall record a judgment lien, or assignment, release, renewal, or extension of a judgment lien, in the county recorder's office in accordance with the following provisions, as applicable:

A satisfaction or partial payment made upon the foreign judgment, on proof thereof, shall be credited against the amount of foreign money specified in the judgment, notwithstanding the entry of judgment in this state.

- (2) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), a foreign judgment may be filed in the judgment docket in accordance with any statute of this state providing a procedure for its recognition and enforcement.

- (1) The fault of a person seeking recovery may not alone bar recovery by that person.
- (2) A person seeking recovery may recover from any defendant or group of defendants whose fault, combined with the fault of persons immune from suit and nonparties to whom fault is allocated, exceeds the fault of the person seeking recovery prior to any reallocation of fault made under Subsection 78B-5-819(2).

(3) No defendant is liable to any person seeking recovery for any amount in excess of the proportion of fault attributed to that defendant under Section 78B-5-819.

- (4)
- (a) The fact finder may, and when requested by a party shall, allocate the percentage or proportion of fault attributable to each person seeking recovery, to each defendant, to any person immune from suit, and to any other person identified under Subsection 78B-5-821(4) for whom there is a factual and legal basis to allocate fault. In the case of a motor vehicle accident involving an unidentified motor vehicle, the existence of the vehicle shall be proven by clear and convincing evidence which may consist solely of one person's testimony.
 - (b) Any fault allocated to a person immune from suit is considered only to accurately determine the fault of the person seeking recovery and a defendant and may not subject the person immune from suit to any liability, based on the allocation of fault, in this or any other action.

 - (a) If the combined percentage or proportion of fault attributed to all persons immune from suit is less than 40%, the trial court shall reduce that percentage or proportion of fault to zero and reallocate that percentage or proportion of fault to the other parties and those identified under Subsection 78B-5-821(4) for whom there is a factual and legal basis to allocate fault in proportion to the percentage or proportion of fault initially attributed to each by the fact finder. After this reallocation, cumulative fault shall equal 100% with the persons immune from suit being allocated no fault.
 - (b) If the combined percentage or proportion of fault attributed to all persons immune from suit is 40% or more, that percentage or proportion of fault attributed to persons immune from suit may not be reduced under Subsection (2)(a).
 - (c)
 - (i) The jury may not be advised of the effect of any reallocation under Subsection (2).

- (2) A person immune from suit may not be named as a defendant, but fault may be allocated to a person immune from suit solely for the purpose of accurately determining the fault of the person seeking recovery and all defendants. A person immune from suit is not subject to any liability, based on the allocation of fault, in this or any other action.
- (3)
- (a) A person immune from suit may intervene as a party under Rule 24, Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, regardless of whether or not money damages are sought.
- (b) A person immune from suit who intervenes in an action may not be held liable for any fault allocated to that person under Section 78B-5-818.

78B-5-824 Personal injury judgments -- Interest authorized.

- (1) In all actions brought to recover damages for personal injuries sustained by any person, caused by the negligence or willful intent of another person, corporation, association, or partnership, and whether the injury was fatal or otherwise, the plaintiff, including a counterclaim plaintiff or a crossclaim plaintiff, in the complaint may claim interest on special damages actually incurred.
- (2) A plaintiff, including a counterclaim plaintiff or a crossclaim plaintiff, seeking to recover damages for personal injury or wrongful death may claim prejudgment interest if for cases classified as tier 1, pursuant to the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, the plaintiff tenders:
 - (a) a written settlement demand, including settlement demands under Utah Rule of Civil Procedure 68; and
 - (b) the amount of the demand does not exceed 1-1/3 of the amount of the judgment eventually awarded at trial.

- (4) Cases classified as tier 2 or tier 3 by the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure or submitted to binding arbitration in accordance with Sections 18-1-4 and 31A-22-321 are not subject to the requirements outlined in Subsection (2).
- (5)
 - (a) Any prejudgment interest shall be computed as simple interest. For first special damages incurred during the year of the occurrence of the act giving rise to the cause of action, any prejudgment interest shall be computed as simple interest accruing from the date on which the first date special damages were actually incurred.
 - (b) For special damages incurred in successive years, prejudgment interest shall be calculated from January 1 of each year special damages were incurred. The court shall calculate prejudgment interest using a per annum rate, which is two percentage points above the prime rate, as published by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System on the first business day in January of the calendar year in which the judgment is entered. The prejudgment interest rate applied to all cases may not be lower than 5% or higher than 10%.
- (6) As used in this section, "special damages actually incurred" does not include damages for future medical expenses, loss of future wages, or loss of future earning capacity.
- (7) This section applies to any cause of action arising on or after July 1, 2014.

Chapter 6 Particular Proceedings

Part 1 Utah Adoption Act

78B-6-101 Title.

This part is known as the "Utah Adoption Act."

Enacted by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-6-102 Legislative intent and findings -- Best interest of child -- Interests of each party.

- (1) It is the intent and desire of the Legislature that in every adoption the best interest of the child should govern and be of foremost concern in the court's determination.
- (2) The court shall make a specific finding regarding the best interest of the child, taking into consideration information provided to the court pursuant to the requirements of this chapter relating to the health, safety, and welfare of the child and the moral climate of the potential adoptive placement.
- (3) The Legislature finds that the rights and interests of all parties affected by an adoption proceeding must be considered and balanced in determining what constitutional protections and processes are necessary and appropriate.
- (4) The Legislature specifically finds that it is not in a child's best interest to be adopted by a person or persons who are cohabiting in a relationship that is not a legally valid and binding marriage under the laws of this state. Nothing in this section limits or prohibits the court's placement of a child with a single adult who is not cohabiting as defined in this part.
- (5) The Legislature also finds that:

- (a) the state has a compelling interest in providing stable and permanent homes for adoptive children in a prompt manner, in preventing the disruption of adoptive placements, and in holding parents accountable for meeting the needs of children;
 - (b) an unmarried mother, faced with the responsibility of making crucial decisions about the future of a newborn child, is entitled to privacy, and has the right to make timely and appropriate decisions regarding her future and the future of the child, and is entitled to assurance regarding the permanence of an adoptive placement;
 - (c) adoptive children have a right to permanence and stability in adoptive placements;
 - (d) adoptive parents have a constitutionally protected liberty and privacy interest in retaining custody of an adopted child;
 - (e) an unmarried biological father has an inchoate interest that acquires constitutional protection only when he demonstrates a timely and full commitment to the responsibilities of parenthood, both during pregnancy and upon the child's birth; and
 - (f) the state has a compelling interest in requiring unmarried biological fathers to demonstrate commitment by providing appropriate medical care and financial support and by establishing legal paternity, in accordance with the requirements of this chapter.
- (a) In enacting this chapter, the Legislature has prescribed the conditions for determining whether an unmarried biological father's action is sufficiently prompt and substantial to require constitutional protection.
 - (b) If an unmarried biological father fails to grasp the opportunities to establish a relationship with his child that are available to him, his biological parental interest may be lost entirely, or greatly diminished in constitutional significance by his failure to timely exercise it, or by his failure to strictly comply with the available legal steps to substantiate it.
 - (c) A certain degree of finality is necessary in order to facilitate the state's compelling interest. The Legislature finds that the interests of the state, the mother, the child, and the adoptive parents described in this section outweigh the interest of an unmarried biological father who does not timely grasp the opportunity to establish and demonstrate a relationship with his child in accordance with the requirements of this chapter.
 - (d) The Legislature finds no practical way to remove all risk of fraud or misrepresentation in adoption proceedings, and has provided a method for absolute protection of an unmarried biological father's rights by compliance with the provisions of this chapter. In balancing the rights and interests of the state, and of all parties affected by fraud, specifically the child, the adoptive parents, and the unmarried biological father, the Legislature has determined that the unmarried biological father is in the best position to prevent or ameliorate the effects of fraud and that, therefore, the burden of fraud shall be borne by him.
 - (e) An unmarried biological father has the primary responsibility to protect his rights.
 - (f) An unmarried biological father is presumed to know that the child may be adopted without his consent unless he strictly complies with the provisions of this chapter, manifests a prompt and full commitment to his parental responsibilities, and establishes paternity.
- (7) The Legislature finds that an unmarried mother has a right of privacy with regard to her pregnancy and adoption plan, and therefore has no legal obligation to disclose the identity of an unmarried biological father prior to or during an adoption proceeding, and has no obligation to volunteer information to the court with respect to the father.

 - (a) If there are proper grounds to terminate the person's parental rights, the court shall order that the person's rights be terminated.
 - (b) If there are not proper grounds to terminate the person's parental rights, the court shall:
 - (i) dismiss the adoption petition;

 - (iii) award custody of the child in accordance with the child's best interest.
- (3) Evidence considered at the custody hearing may include:
 - (a) evidence of psychological or emotional bonds that the child has formed with a third person, including the prospective adoptive parent; and
 - (b) any detriment that a change in custody may cause the child.
- (4) If the court dismisses the adoption petition, the fact that a person relinquished a child for adoption or consented to the adoption may not be considered as evidence in a custody proceeding described in this section, or in any subsequent custody proceeding, that it is not in the child's best interest for custody to be awarded to such person or that:
 - (a) the person is unfit or incompetent to be a parent;

- (b) the person has neglected or abandoned the child;
 - (c) the person is not interested in having custody of the child; or
 - (d) the person has forfeited the person's parental presumption.

 - (b) The court may also finalize the adoption if doing so is in the best interest of the child.
- (7)
- (a) A person may not contest an adoption after the final decree of adoption is entered, if that person:
 - (i) was a party to the adoption proceeding;
 - (ii) was served with notice of the adoption proceeding; or
 - (iii) executed a consent to the adoption or relinquishment for adoption.
 - (b) No person may contest an adoption after one year from the day on which the final decree of adoption is entered.
 - (c) The limitations on contesting an adoption action, described in this Subsection (7), apply to all attempts to contest an adoption:
 - (i) regardless of whether the adoption is contested directly or collaterally; and
 - (ii) regardless of the basis for contesting the adoption, including claims of fraud, duress, undue influence, lack of capacity or competency, mistake of law or fact, or lack of jurisdiction.
 - (d) The limitations on contesting an adoption action, described in this Subsection (7), do not prohibit a timely appeal of:
 - (i) a final decree of adoption; or
 - (ii) a decision in an action challenging an adoption, if the action was brought within the time limitations described in Subsections (7)(a) and (b).
- (8) A court that has jurisdiction over a child for whom more than one petition for adoption is filed shall grant a hearing only under the following circumstances:

- (ii) is placed with, or is in the custody or guardianship of, an individual who previously informed the division or the court that the individual is unwilling or unable to adopt the child.
- (9)
- (a) If the court grants a hearing on more than one petition for adoption, there is a rebuttable presumption that it is in the best interest of a child to be placed for adoption with a petitioner:
 - (i) who has fulfilled the requirements described in Title 78B, Chapter 6, Part 1, Utah Adoption Act; and
 - (ii)
 - (A) with whom the child has continuously resided for six months;
 - (B) who has filed a written statement with the court within 120 days after the day on which the shelter hearing is held, as described in Subsection (8)(a)(iii); or
 - (C) who is a relative described in Subsection (8)(a)(iv).
 - (b) The court may consider other factors relevant to the best interest of the child to determine whether the presumption is rebutted.
 - (c) The court shall weigh the best interest of the child uniformly between petitioners if more than one petitioner satisfies a rebuttable presumption condition described in Subsection (9)(a).
- (10) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the division or the child's guardian ad litem from appearing or participating in any proceeding for a petition for adoption.

- (2)
 - (a) Notwithstanding any other provision in this chapter, if a child in the custody of the division is placed for adoption, the prospective adoptive parent and birth parent, or other birth relative, may enter into a postadoption contact agreement as provided in this section.
 - (b) A birth parent is not required to be a party to a postadoption contact agreement in order to permit an open adoption agreement between a prospective adoptive parent and another birth relative of the child.
- (3) In order to be legally enforceable, a postadoption contact agreement shall be:
 - (a) approved by the court before the finalization of the adoption, with the court making a specific finding that the agreement is in the best interest of the child;
 - (b) signed by each party claiming a right or obligation in the agreement; and
 - (c) if the adopted child is 12 years old or older, approved by the child.
- (4) A postadoption contact agreement shall:
 - (a) describe:
 - (i) visits, if any, that shall take place between the birth parent, other birth relative, adoptive parent, and adopted child;
 - (ii) the degree of supervision, if any, that shall be required during a visit between a birth parent, other birth relative, and adopted child;
 - (iii) the information, if any, that shall be provided to a birth parent, or other birth relative, about the adopted child and how often that information shall be provided;

- (5) A postadoption contact agreement may not limit the adoptive parent's ability to move out of state.
- (6) A postadoption contact agreement may only be modified with the consent of the adoptive parent.
- (7) In an action seeking enforcement of a postadoption contact agreement:
 - (a) an adoptive parent's judgment about the best interest of the child is entitled to a presumption of correctness;
 - (b) if the party seeking to enforce the postadoption contact agreement successfully rebuts the presumption described in Subsection (7)(a), the court shall consider whether:

- (i) the parties performed the duties outlined in the open adoption agreement in good faith;
 - (ii) there is a reasonable alternative that fulfills the spirit of the open adoption agreement without ordering mandatory compliance with the open adoption agreement; and
 - (iii) enforcement of the open adoption agreement is in the best interest of the adopted child; and
 - (c) the court shall order the parties to attend mediation, if the presumption in Subsection (7)(a) is successfully rebutted and mediation is in the child's best interest.
- (8) An open adoption agreement that has been found not to be in the best interest of the adopted child shall not be enforced.
- (9) Violation of an open adoption agreement is not grounds:
- (a) to set aside an adoption; or
 - (b) for an award of money damages.
- (10) Nothing in this section shall be construed to mean that an open adoption agreement is required before an adoption may be finalized.
- (11) Refusal or failure to agree to a postadoption contact agreement is not admissible in any adoption proceeding.
- (12) The court that approves a postadoption contact agreement retains jurisdiction over modification, termination, and enforcement of an approved postadoption contact agreement.

An action to foreclose the property described in this notice has been filed. If the foreclosure action is pursued to its conclusion, the described property will be sold at public auction to the highest bidder unless the default in the obligation secured by this property is cured.

If the property is sold, you may be allowed under federal law to continue to occupy your rental unit until your rental agreement expires, or until 90 days after the sale of the property at auction, whichever is later. If your rental or lease agreement expires after the 90-day period, you may need to provide a copy of your rental or lease agreement to the new owner to prove your right to remain on the property longer than 90 days after the sale of the property.

You must continue to pay your rent and comply with other requirements of your rental or lease agreement or you will be subject to eviction for violating your rental or lease agreement.

The new owner or the new owner's representative will probably contact you after the property is sold with directions about where to pay rent.

The new owner of the property may or may not want to offer to enter into a new rental or lease agreement with you at the expiration of the period described above."

 - (i) did not know or have reason to know of a release of any hazardous matter into, onto, beneath, or from the real property security; and

 - (b) The complaint in an action under Subsection (5)(a)(ii) may include causes of action for a money judgment for all or part of the secured obligation, in which case the waiver of the secured lender's liens under Subsection (3)(a) may result only if a final money judgment is obtained against the borrower.
- (6)
- (a) If a secured lender elects the rights and remedies under Subsection (3)(a) and the borrower's obligations are also secured by other real property security, fixtures, or personal property, the secured lender shall first foreclose against the additional collateral to the extent required by applicable law.
 - (b) Under this subsection the amount of the judgment of the secured lender under Subsection (3)(a) is limited to the remaining balance of the borrower's obligations after the application of the proceeds of the additional collateral.
 - (c) The borrower may waive or modify the foreclosure requirements of this Subsection (6) if the waiver or modification is in writing and signed by the borrower after default.
- (7) This section does not affect any rights or obligations arising under contracts existing before July 1, 1993, and applies only to loans, extensions of credit, guaranties, or other obligations secured by real property security made, renewed, or modified on or after July 1, 1993.

- (3) "Mutual foreign protection order" means a foreign protection order that includes provisions in favor of both the protected individual seeking enforcement of the order and the respondent.
- (4) "Protected individual" means an individual protected by a protection order.
- (5) "Protection order" means an injunction or other order, issued by a tribunal under the domestic violence, family-violence, or anti-stalking laws of the issuing state, to prevent an individual from engaging in violent or threatening acts against, harassment of, contact or communication with, or physical proximity to, another individual.
- (6) "Respondent" means the individual against whom enforcement of a protection order is sought.
- (7) "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States. The term includes an Indian tribe or band that has jurisdiction to issue protection orders.
- (8) "Tribunal" means a court, agency, or other entity authorized by law to issue or modify a protection order.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-7-303 Judicial enforcement of order.

- (1) A person authorized by the law of this state to seek enforcement of a protection order may seek enforcement of a valid foreign protection order in a tribunal of this state. The tribunal shall enforce the terms of the order, including terms that provide relief that a tribunal of this state would lack power to provide but for this section. The tribunal shall enforce the order, whether the order was obtained by independent action or in another proceeding, if it is an order issued in response to a complaint, petition, or motion filed by or on behalf of an individual seeking protection. In a proceeding to enforce a foreign protection order, the tribunal shall follow the procedures of this state for the enforcement of protection orders.
- (2) A tribunal of this state may not enforce a foreign protection order issued by a tribunal of a state that does not recognize the standing of a protected individual to seek enforcement of the order.

- (3) A tribunal of this state shall enforce the provisions of a valid foreign protection order which govern custody and visitation, if the order was issued in accordance with the jurisdictional requirements governing the issuance of custody and visitation orders in the issuing state.
- (4) A foreign protection order is valid if it:
 - (a) identifies the protected individual and the respondent;
 - (b) is currently in effect;
 - (c) was issued by a tribunal that had jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter under the law of the issuing state; and
 - (d) was issued after the respondent was given reasonable notice and had an opportunity to be heard before the tribunal issued the order or, in the case of an order ex parte, the respondent was given notice and has had or will have an opportunity to be heard within a reasonable time after the order was issued, in a manner consistent with the rights of the respondent to due process.
- (5) A foreign protection order valid on its face is prima facie evidence of its validity.
- (6) Absence of any of the criteria for validity of a foreign protection order is an affirmative defense in an action seeking enforcement of the order.
- (7) A tribunal of this state may enforce provisions of a mutual foreign protection order which favor a respondent only if:
 - (a) the respondent filed a written pleading seeking a protection order from the tribunal of the issuing state; and
 - (b) the tribunal of the issuing state made specific findings in favor of the respondent.
- (8)
 - (a) The juvenile court has jurisdiction to enforce foreign protection orders under this section over which the juvenile court would have had jurisdiction if the order had been originally sought in this state.
 - (b) The district court has jurisdiction to enforce foreign protection orders under this section:
 - (i) over which the district court would have had jurisdiction if the order had been originally sought in this state; or
 - (ii) that are not under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court under Subsection (8)(a).

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-7-304 Nonjudicial enforcement of order.

- (1) A law enforcement officer of this state, upon determining that there is probable cause to believe that a valid foreign protection order exists and that the order has been violated, shall enforce the order as if it were the order of a tribunal of this state. Presentation of a protection order that identifies both the protected individual and the respondent and, on its face, is currently in effect constitutes probable cause to believe that a valid foreign protection order exists. For the purposes of this section, the protection order may be inscribed on a tangible medium or may have been stored in an electronic or other medium if it is retrievable in perceivable form. Presentation of a certified copy of a protection order is not required for enforcement.
- (2) If a foreign protection order is not presented, a law enforcement officer of this state may consider other information in determining whether there is probable cause to believe that a valid foreign protection order exists.
- (3) If a law enforcement officer of this state determines that an otherwise valid foreign protection order cannot be enforced because the respondent has not been notified or served with the order, the officer shall inform the respondent of the order, make a reasonable effort to serve the order upon the respondent, and allow the respondent a reasonable opportunity to comply with the order before enforcing the order.

- (4) Registration or filing of an order in this state is not required for the enforcement of a valid foreign protection order pursuant to this part.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-7-309 Severability clause.

Part 2
Punitive Damages

78B-8-201 Basis for punitive damages awards -- Section inapplicable to DUI cases or providing illegal controlled substances -- Division of award with state.

- (1)

- (a) Except as otherwise provided by statute, punitive damages may be awarded only if compensatory or general damages are awarded and it is established by clear and convincing evidence that the acts or omissions of the tortfeasor are the result of willful and malicious or intentionally fraudulent conduct, or conduct that manifests a knowing and reckless indifference toward, and a disregard of, the rights of others.
 - (b) The limitations, standards of evidence, and standards of conduct of Subsection (1)(a) do not apply to any claim for punitive damages arising out of the tortfeasor's:
 - (i) operation of a motor vehicle or motorboat while voluntarily intoxicated or under the influence of any drug or combination of alcohol and drugs as prohibited by Section 41-6a-502;
 - (ii) causing death of another person by providing or administering an illegal controlled substance to the person under Section 78B-3-801; or
 - (iii) providing an illegal controlled substance to any person in the chain of transfer that connects directly to a person who subsequently provided or administered the substance to a person whose death was caused in whole or in part by the substance.
 - (c) The award of a penalty under Section 78B-3-108 regarding shoplifting is not subject to the prior award of compensatory or general damages under Subsection (1)(a) whether or not restitution has been paid to the merchant prior to or as a part of a civil action under Section 78B-3-108.
- (2) Evidence of a party's wealth or financial condition shall be admissible only after a finding of liability for punitive damages has been made.
- (a) Discovery concerning a party's wealth or financial condition may only be allowed after the party seeking punitive damages has established a prima facie case on the record that an award of punitive damages is reasonably likely against the party about whom discovery is sought and, if disputed, the court is satisfied that the discovery is not sought for the purpose of harassment.
 - (b) Subsection (2)(a) does not apply to any claim for punitive damages arising out of the tortfeasor's:
 - (i) operation of a motor vehicle or motorboat while voluntarily intoxicated or under the influence of any drug or combination of alcohol and drugs as prohibited by Section 41-6a-502;
 - (ii) causing death of another person or causing a person to be addicted by providing or administering an illegal controlled substance to the person under Section 78B-3-801; or
 - (iii) providing an illegal controlled substance to any person in the chain of transfer that connects directly to a person who subsequently provided or administered the substance to a person whose death was caused in whole or in part by the substance.
- (3)
- (a) In any case where punitive damages are awarded, the court shall enter judgment as follows:
 - (i) for the first $50,000, judgment shall be in favor of the injured party; and
 - (ii) any amount in excess of $50,000 shall be divided equally between the state and the injured party, and judgment to each entered accordingly.
 - (b)
 - (i) The actual and bona fide attorney fees and costs incurred in obtaining and collecting the judgment for punitive damages shall be considered to have been incurred by the state and the injured party in proportion to the judgment entered in each party's behalf.
 - (A) The state and injured party shall be responsible for each one's proportionate share only.
 - (B) The state is liable to pay its proportionate share only to the extent it receives payment toward its judgment.
 - (ii) If the court awards attorney fees and costs to the injured party as a direct result of the punitive damage award, the state shall have a corresponding credit in a proportionate amount based on the amounts of the party's respective punitive damage judgments. This credit may be applied as an offset against the amount of attorney fees and costs charged to the state for obtaining the punitive damage judgment.

- (c) The state shall have all rights due a judgment creditor to collect the full amounts of both punitive damage judgments until the judgments are fully satisfied.
 - (i) Neither party is required to pursue collection.
 - (ii) In pursuing collection, the state may exercise any of its collection rights under Section 63A-3-301 et seq., Section 63A-3-502 et seq., and any other statutory provisions. Any amounts collected on these judgments by either party shall be held in trust and distributed as set forth in Subsection (3)(e).
- (d) Unless all affected parties, including the state, expressly agree otherwise, collection on the punitive damages judgment shall be deferred until all other judgments have been fully paid. Any payment by or on behalf of any judgment debtor, whether voluntary, by execution, or otherwise, shall be distributed and applied in the following order:
 - (i) to the judgment for compensatory damage and any applicable judgment for attorney fees and costs;
 - (ii) to the initial $50,000 of the punitive damage judgment;
 - (iii) to any judgment for attorney fees and costs awarded as a direct result of the punitive damages; and
 - (iv) to the remaining judgments for punitive damages.
- (e) Any partial payments shall be distributed equally between the state and injured party.
- (f) After the payment of attorney fees and costs, all amounts paid on the state's judgment shall be remitted to the state treasurer to be deposited into the General Fund.

 - (b) was raised or addressed at trial or on appeal;
 - (c) could have been but was not raised at trial or on appeal;
 - (d) was raised or addressed in any previous request for post-conviction relief or could have been, but was not, raised in a previous request for post-conviction relief; or
 - (e) is barred by the limitation period established in Section 78B-9-107.
- (2)

- (a) The state may raise any of the procedural bars or time bar at any time, including during the state's appeal from an order granting post-conviction relief, unless the court determines that the state should have raised the time bar or procedural bar at an earlier time.
- (b) Any court may raise a procedural bar or time bar on its own motion, provided that it gives the parties notice and an opportunity to be heard.
- (3) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(c), a person may be eligible for relief on a basis that the ground could have been but was not raised at trial or on appeal, if the failure to raise that ground was due to ineffective assistance of counsel.
- (4) This section authorizes a merits review only to the extent required to address the exception set forth in Subsection (3).

78B-9-107 Statute of limitations for postconviction relief.

 - (a) the last day for filing an appeal from the entry of the final judgment of conviction, if no appeal is taken;
 - (b) the entry of the decision of the appellate court which has jurisdiction over the case, if an appeal is taken;
 - (c) the last day for filing a petition for writ of certiorari in the Utah Supreme Court or the United States Supreme Court, if no petition for writ of certiorari is filed;
 - (d) the entry of the denial of the petition for writ of certiorari or the entry of the decision on the petition for certiorari review, if a petition for writ of certiorari is filed;
 - (e) the date on which petitioner knew or should have known, in the exercise of reasonable diligence, of evidentiary facts on which the petition is based; or
 - (f) the date on which the new rule described in Subsection 78B-9-104(1)(f) is established.
- (3) The limitations period is tolled for any period during which the petitioner was prevented from filing a petition due to state action in violation of the United States Constitution, or due to physical or mental incapacity. The petitioner has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the petitioner is entitled to relief under this Subsection (3).
- (4) The statute of limitations is tolled during the pendency of the outcome of a petition asserting:
 - (a) exoneration through DNA testing under Section 78B-9-303; or
 - (b) factual innocence under Section 78B-9-401.
- (5) Sections 77-19-8, 78B-2-104, and 78B-2-111 do not extend the limitations period established in this section.

 - (a) modify the original conviction or sentence; or
 - (b) vacate the original conviction or sentence and order a new trial or sentencing proceeding as appropriate.

Counsel who represented the petitioner at trial or on the direct appeal may not be appointed to represent the petitioner under this section.
- (2) In determining whether to appoint counsel, the court shall consider the following factors:
 - (a) whether the petition or the appeal contains factual allegations that will require an evidentiary hearing; and
 - (b) whether the petition involves complicated issues of law or fact that require the assistance of counsel for proper adjudication.
- (3) An allegation that counsel appointed under this section was ineffective cannot be the basis for relief in any subsequent post-conviction petition.

78B-9-202 Appointment and payment of counsel in death penalty cases.

- (1) A person who has been sentenced to death and whose conviction and sentence has been affirmed on appeal shall be advised in open court, on the record, in a hearing scheduled no less than 30 days prior to the signing of the death warrant, of the provisions of this chapter allowing challenges to the conviction and death sentence and the appointment of counsel for indigent petitioners.
- (2)
 - (a) If a petitioner requests the court to appoint counsel, the court shall determine whether the petitioner is indigent and make findings on the record regarding the petitioner's indigency. If the court finds that the petitioner is indigent, it shall, subject to the provisions of Subsection (5), promptly appoint counsel who is qualified to represent petitioners in postconviction death penalty cases as required by Rule 8 of the Utah Rules of Criminal Procedure. Counsel who represented the petitioner at trial or on the direct appeal may not be appointed to represent the petitioner under this section.
 - (b) A petitioner who wishes to reject the offer of counsel shall be advised on the record by the court of the consequences of the rejection before the court may accept the rejection.
- (3) Attorney fees and litigation expenses incurred in providing the representation provided for in this section and that the court has determined are reasonable shall be paid from state funds by the Division of Finance according to rules established pursuant to Title 63G, Chapter 3, Utah Administrative Rulemaking Act.
 - (a) In determining whether the requested funds are reasonable, the court should consider:
 - (i) the extent to which the petitioner requests funds to investigate and develop evidence and legal arguments that duplicate the evidence presented and arguments raised in the criminal proceeding; and
 - (ii) whether the petitioner has established that the requested funds are necessary to develop evidence and legal arguments that are reasonably likely to support postconviction relief.
 - (b) The court may authorize payment of attorney fees at a rate of $125 per hour up to a maximum of $60,000. The court may exceed the maximum only upon a showing of good cause as established in Subsections (3)(e) and (f).
 - (c) The court may authorize litigation expenses up to a maximum of $20,000. The court may exceed the maximum only upon a showing of good cause as established in Subsections (3)(e) and (f).
 - (d) The court may authorize the petitioner to apply ex parte for the funds permitted in Subsections (3)(b) and (c) upon a motion to proceed ex parte and if the petitioner establishes the need for confidentiality. The motion to proceed ex parte must be served on counsel representing the state, and the court may not grant the motion without giving the state an opportunity to respond.
 - (e) In determining whether good cause exists to exceed the maximum sums established in Subsections (3)(b) and (c), the court shall consider:
 - (i) the extent to which the work done to date and the further work identified by the petitioner duplicates work and investigation performed during the criminal case under review; and

- (ii) whether the petitioner has established that the work done to date and the further work identified is reasonably likely to develop evidence or legal arguments that will support postconviction relief.
- (f) The court may permit payment in excess of the maximum amounts established in Subsections (3)(b) and (c) only on the petitioner's motion, provided that:
 - (i) if the court has granted a motion to file ex parte applications under Subsection (3)(d), the petitioner shall serve the motion to exceed the maximum amounts on an assistant attorney general employed in a division other than the one in which the attorney is employed who represents the state in the postconviction case; if the court has not granted a motion to file ex parte applications, then the petitioner must serve the attorney representing the state in the postconviction matter with the motion to exceed the maximum funds;
 - (ii) if the motion proceeds under Subsection (3)(f)(i), the designated assistant attorney general may not disclose to the attorney representing the state in the postconviction matter any material the petitioner provides in support of the motion except upon a determination by the court that the material is not protected by or that the petitioner has waived the attorney client privilege or work product doctrine; and
 - (iii) the court gives the state an opportunity to respond to the request for funds in excess of the maximum amounts provided in Subsections (3)(b) and (c).
- (4) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as creating the right to the effective assistance of postconviction counsel, and relief may not be granted on any claim that postconviction counsel was ineffective.
- (5) If within 60 days of the request for counsel the court cannot find counsel willing to accept the appointment, the court shall notify the petitioner and the state's counsel in writing. In that event, the petitioner may elect to proceed pro se by serving written notice of that election on the court and state's counsel within 30 days of the court's notice that no counsel could be found. If within 30 days of its notice to the petitioner the court receives no notice that the petitioner elects to proceed pro se, the court shall dismiss any pending postconviction actions and vacate any execution stays, and the state may initiate proceedings under Section 77-19-9 to issue an execution warrant.
- (6) Subject to Subsection (2)(a) the court shall appoint counsel to represent the petitioner for the first petition filed after the direct appeal. For all other petitions, counsel may not be appointed at public expense for a petitioner, except to raise claims:
 - (a) based on newly discovered evidence as defined in Subsection 78B-9-104(1)(e)(i); or
 - (b) based on Subsection 78B-9-104(1)(f) that could not have been raised in any previously filed post trial motion or postconviction proceeding.

78B-9-300 Title.

This part is known as "Postconviction DNA Testing."

Enacted by Chapter 358, 2008 General Session

Part 3
Postconviction Testing of DNA

78B-9-301 Postconviction testing of DNA -- Petition -- Sufficient allegations -- Notification of victim.

- (1) As used in this part:
 - (a) "DNA" means deoxyribonucleic acid.
 - (b) "Factually innocent" has the same definition as in Section 78B-9-402.
- (2) A person convicted of a felony offense may at any time file a petition for postconviction DNA testing in the trial court that entered the judgment of conviction if the person asserts factual innocence under oath and the petition alleges:
 - (a) evidence has been obtained regarding the person's case which is still in existence and is in a condition that allows DNA testing to be conducted;
 - (b) the chain of custody is sufficient to establish that the evidence has not been altered in any material aspect;
 - (c) the person identifies the specific evidence to be tested and states a theory of defense, not inconsistent with theories previously asserted at trial, that the requested DNA testing would support;
 - (d) the evidence was not previously subjected to DNA testing, or if the evidence was tested previously, the evidence was not subjected to the testing that is now requested, and the new testing may resolve an issue not resolved by the prior testing;
 - (e) the proposed DNA testing is generally accepted as valid in the scientific field or is otherwise admissible under Utah law;
 - (f) the evidence that is the subject of the request for testing has the potential to produce new, noncumulative evidence that will establish the person's factual innocence; and
 - (g) the person is aware of the consequences of filing the petition, including:
 - (i) those specified in Sections 78B-9-302 and 78B-9-304; and
 - (ii) that the person is waiving any statute of limitations in all jurisdictions as to any felony offense the person has committed which is identified through DNA database comparison.
- (3) The petition under Subsection (2) shall comply with Rule 65C, Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, including providing the underlying criminal case number.
- (4) The court may not order DNA testing in cases in which DNA testing was available at the time of trial and the person did not request DNA testing or present DNA evidence for tactical reasons.
- (5) After a petition is filed under this section, prosecutors, law enforcement officers, and crime laboratory personnel have a duty to cooperate in preserving evidence and in determining the sufficiency of the chain of custody of the evidence which may be subject to DNA testing.
- (6)
 - (a) A person who files a petition under this section shall serve notice upon the office of the prosecutor who obtained the conviction, and upon the Utah attorney general. The attorney general shall, within 30 days after receipt of service of a copy of the petition, or within any additional period of time the court allows, answer or otherwise respond to all proceedings initiated under this part.
 - (b) After the attorney general is given an opportunity to respond to a petition for postconviction DNA testing, the court shall order DNA testing if it finds by a preponderance of the evidence that all criteria of Subsection (2) have been met.
- (7)
 - (a) If the court grants the petition for testing, the DNA test shall be performed by the Utah State Crime Laboratory within the Criminal Investigations and Technical Services Division created in Section 53-10-103, unless the person establishes that the state crime laboratory has a conflict of interest or does not have the capability to perform the necessary testing.

- (b) If the court orders that the testing be conducted by any laboratory other than the state crime laboratory, the court shall require that the testing be performed:
 - (i) under reasonable conditions designed to protect the state's interests in the integrity of the evidence; and
 - (ii) according to accepted scientific standards and procedures.
- (8)
 - (a) DNA testing under this section shall be paid for from funds appropriated to the Department of Public Safety under Subsection 53-10-407(4)(d)(ii) from the DNA Specimen Restricted Account created in Section 53-10-407 if:
 - (i) the court ordered the DNA testing under this section;
 - (ii) the Utah State Crime Laboratory within the Criminal Investigations and Technical Services Division has a conflict of interest or does not have the capability to perform the necessary testing; and
 - (iii) the petitioner who has filed for postconviction DNA testing under Section 78B-9-201 is serving a sentence of imprisonment and is indigent.
 - (b) Under this Subsection (8), costs of DNA testing include those necessary to transport the evidence, prepare samples for analysis, analyze the evidence, and prepare reports of findings.
- (9) If the person is serving a sentence of imprisonment and is indigent, the state shall pay for the costs of the testing under this part, but if the result is not favorable to the person the court may order the person to reimburse the state for the costs of the testing, pursuant to the provisions of Subsections 78B-9-302(4) and 78B-9-304(1)(b).
- (10) Any victim of the crime regarding which the person petitions for DNA testing, who has elected to receive notice under Section 77-38-3 shall be notified by the state's attorney of any hearing regarding the petition and testing, even though the hearing is a civil proceeding.

Amended by Chapter 405, 2010 General Session

78B-9-302 Effect of petition for postconviction DNA testing -- Requests for appointment of counsel -- Appeals -- Subsequent postconviction petitions.

- (1) The filing of a petition for DNA testing constitutes the person's consent to provide samples of body fluids for use in the DNA testing.
- (2) The data from any DNA samples or test results obtained as a result of the petition may be entered into law enforcement DNA databases.
- (3) The filing of a petition for DNA testing constitutes the person's waiver of any statute of limitations in all jurisdictions as to any felony offense the person has committed which is identified through DNA database comparison.
- (4) The person filing the petition for postconviction DNA testing bears the cost of the testing unless:
 - (a) the person is serving a sentence of imprisonment;
 - (b) the person is indigent; and
 - (c) the DNA test is favorable to the petitioner.
- (5)
 - (a) Subsections 78B-9-109(1) and (2), regarding the appointment of pro bono counsel, apply to any request for the appointment of counsel under this part.
 - (b) Subsection 78B-9-109(3), regarding effectiveness of counsel, applies to subsequent postconviction petitions and to appeals under this part.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-9-303 Consequences of postconviction DNA testing when result is favorable to person -- Procedures.

- (1)
 - (a) If the result of postconviction DNA testing is favorable to the person, the person may file a motion to vacate the conviction. The court shall give the state 30 days to respond in writing, to present evidence, and to be heard in oral argument prior to issuing an order to vacate the conviction. The state may by motion request an extension of the 30 days, which the court may grant upon good cause shown.
 - (b) The state may stipulate to the conviction being vacated, or may request a hearing and attempt to demonstrate through evidence and argument that, despite the DNA test results, the state possesses sufficient evidence of the person's guilt so that the person is unable to demonstrate by clear and convincing evidence that the person is factually innocent of one or more offenses of which the person was convicted, and all the lesser included offenses related to those offenses.
 - (a)
 - (i) If the result of postconviction DNA testing is favorable to the person and the state opposes vacating the conviction, the court shall consider all the evidence presented at the original trial and at the hearing under Subsection (1)(b), including the new DNA test result.
 - (ii) The court may consider:
 - (A) evidence that was suppressed or would be suppressed at a criminal trial; and
 - (B) hearsay evidence, and may consider that the evidence is hearsay in evaluating its weight and credibility.
 - (b) If the court, after considering all the evidence, determines that the DNA test result demonstrates by clear and convincing evidence that the person is factually innocent of one or more offenses of which the person was convicted, the court shall order that those convictions be vacated with prejudice and those convictions be expunged from the person's record.
 - (c) If the court, after considering all the evidence presented at the original trial and at the hearing under Subsection (1)(b), including the new DNA test result, finds by clear and convincing evidence that the person did not commit one or more offenses of which the person was convicted, but the court does not find by clear and convincing evidence that the person did not commit any lesser included offenses relating to those offenses, the court shall modify the original conviction and sentence of the person as appropriate for the lesser included offense, whether or not the lesser included offense was originally submitted to the trier of fact.
 - (d) If the court, after considering all the evidence presented at the original trial and at the hearing under Subsection (1)(b), including the new DNA test result, does not find by clear and convincing evidence that the person is factually innocent of the offense or offenses the person is challenging and does not find that Subsection (2)(c) applies, the court shall deny the person's petition regarding the offense or offenses.
 - (e) Any party may appeal from the trial court's final ruling on the petition under this part.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-9-304 Consequences of postconviction DNA testing when result is unfavorable to person -- Procedures.

- (1) If the result of postconviction DNA testing is not favorable to the person, the court shall deny the person's petition, and the court shall:

- (a) report the unfavorable result to the Board of Pardons and Parole; and
 - (b) order the person to pay for the costs of the DNA testing unless the petitioner has already paid that cost.
- (2) This section does not apply if the DNA test is inconclusive.

Part 4

Postconviction Determination of Factual Innocence

78B-9-401 Title.

This part is known as "Postconviction Determination of Factual Innocence."

Enacted by Chapter 358, 2008 General Session

78B-9-401.5 Definitions.

As used in this part:

- (1) "Bona fide and compelling issue of factual innocence" means that the newly discovered material evidence presented by the petitioner, if credible, would clearly establish the factual innocence of the petitioner.
- (2) "Factual innocence" or "factually innocent" means a person did not:
 - (a) engage in the conduct for which the person was convicted;
 - (b) engage in conduct relating to any lesser included offenses of the crime for which the person was convicted; or
 - (c) commit any other felony arising out of or reasonably connected to the facts supporting the indictment or information upon which the person was convicted.
- (3) "Newly discovered material evidence" means evidence that was not available to the petitioner at trial or during the resolution on the merits by the trial court of any motion to withdraw a guilty plea or motion for new trial and which is relevant to the determination of the issue of factual innocence, and may also include:
 - (a) evidence which was discovered prior to or in the course of any appeal or postconviction proceedings that served in whole or in part as the basis for vacatur or reversal of the conviction of petitioner; or
 - (b) evidence that supports the claims within a petition filed under Part 1, General Provisions, which is pending at the time of the court's determination of factual innocence.
- (4) "Period of incarceration" means any sentence of imprisonment, including jail, which was served after judgement of conviction.

Enacted by Chapter 153, 2010 General Session

78B-9-402 Petition for determination of factual innocence -- Sufficient allegations -- Notification of victim -- Payment to surviving spouse.

- (1) A person who has been convicted of a felony offense may petition the district court in the county in which the person was convicted for a hearing to establish that the person is factually innocent of the crime or crimes of which the person was convicted.
- (2)

- (a) The petition shall contain an assertion of factual innocence under oath by the petitioner and shall aver, with supporting affidavits or other credible documents, that:
 - (i) newly discovered material evidence exists that, if credible, establishes that the petitioner is factually innocent;
 - (ii) the specific evidence identified by the petitioner in the petition establishes innocence;
 - (iii) the material evidence is not merely cumulative of evidence that was known;
 - (iv) the material evidence is not merely impeachment evidence; and
 - (v) viewed with all the other evidence, the newly discovered evidence demonstrates that the petitioner is factually innocent.
 - (b) The court shall review the petition in accordance with the procedures in Subsection (9)(b), and make a finding that the petition has satisfied the requirements of Subsection (2)(a). If the court finds the petition does not meet all the requirements of Subsection (2)(a), it shall dismiss the petition without prejudice and send notice of the dismissal to the petitioner and the attorney general.
- (3)
 - (a) The petition shall also contain an averment that:
 - (i) neither the petitioner nor the petitioner's counsel knew of the evidence at the time of trial or sentencing or in time to include the evidence in any previously filed post-trial motion or postconviction motion, and the evidence could not have been discovered by the petitioner or the petitioner's counsel through the exercise of reasonable diligence; or
 - (ii) a court has found ineffective assistance of counsel for failing to exercise reasonable diligence in uncovering the evidence.
 - (b) Upon entry of a finding that the petition is sufficient under Subsection (2)(a), the court shall then review the petition to determine if Subsection (3)(a) has been satisfied. If the court finds that the requirements of Subsection (3)(a) have not been satisfied, it may dismiss the petition without prejudice and give notice to the petitioner and the attorney general of the dismissal, or the court may waive the requirements of Subsection (3)(a) if the court finds the petition should proceed to hearing based upon the strength of the petition, and that there is other evidence that could have been discovered through the exercise of reasonable diligence by the petitioner or the petitioner's counsel at trial, and the other evidence:
 - (i) was not discovered by the petitioner or the petitioner's counsel;
 - (ii) is material upon the issue of factual innocence; and
 - (iii) has never been presented to a court.
- (4) If the conviction for which the petitioner asserts factual innocence was based upon a plea of guilty, the petition shall contain the specific nature and content of the evidence that establishes factual innocence. The court shall review the evidence and may dismiss the petition at any time in the course of the proceedings, if the court finds that the evidence of factual innocence relies solely upon the recantation of testimony or prior statements made by a witness against the petitioner, and the recantation appears to the court to be equivocal or self-serving.
- (5) A person who has already obtained postconviction relief that vacated or reversed the person's conviction or sentence may also file a petition under this part in the same manner and form as described above, if no retrial or appeal regarding this offense is pending.
- (6) If some or all of the evidence alleged to be exonerating is biological evidence subject to DNA testing, the petitioner shall seek DNA testing pursuant to Section 78B-9-301.
- (7) Except as provided in Subsection (9), the petition and all subsequent proceedings shall be in compliance with and governed by Rule 65C, Utah Rules of Civil Procedure, and shall include the underlying criminal case number.

- (8) After a petition is filed under this section, prosecutors, law enforcement officers, and crime laboratory personnel shall cooperate in preserving evidence and in determining the sufficiency of the chain of custody of the evidence which is the subject of the petition.
- (9)
- (a) A person who files a petition under this section shall serve notice of the petition and a copy of the petition upon the office of the prosecutor who obtained the conviction and upon the Utah attorney general.
 - (b) The assigned judge shall conduct an initial review of the petition. If it is apparent to the court that the petitioner is either merely relitigating facts, issues, or evidence presented in previous proceedings or presenting issues that appear frivolous or speculative on their face, the court shall dismiss the petition, state the basis for the dismissal, and serve notice of dismissal upon the petitioner and the attorney general. If, upon completion of the initial review, the court does not dismiss the petition, it shall order the attorney general to file a response to the petition. The attorney general shall, within 30 days after receipt of the court's order, or within any additional period of time the court allows, answer or otherwise respond to all proceedings initiated under this part.
 - (c) After the time for response by the attorney general under Subsection (9)(b) has passed, the court shall order a hearing if it finds the petition meets the requirements of Subsections (2) and (3) and finds there is a bona fide and compelling issue of factual innocence regarding the charges of which the petitioner was convicted. No bona fide and compelling issue of factual innocence exists if the petitioner is merely relitigating facts, issues, or evidence presented in a previous proceeding or if the petitioner is unable to identify with sufficient specificity the nature and reliability of the newly discovered evidence that establishes the petitioner's factual innocence.
 - (d) If the parties stipulate that the evidence establishes that the petitioner is factually innocent, the court may find the petitioner is factually innocent without holding a hearing. If the state will not stipulate that the evidence establishes that the petitioner is factually innocent, no determination of factual innocence may be made by the court without first holding a hearing under this part.
- (10) The court may not grant a petition for a hearing under this part during the period in which criminal proceedings in the matter are pending before any trial or appellate court, unless stipulated to by the parties.
- (11) Any victim of a crime that is the subject of a petition under this part, and who has elected to receive notice under Section 77-38-3, shall be notified by the state's attorney of any hearing regarding the petition.
- (12) A petition to determine factual innocence under this part, or Part 3, Postconviction Testing of DNA, shall be filed separately from any petition for postconviction relief under Part 1, General Provisions. Separate petitions may be filed simultaneously in the same court.
- (13) The procedures governing the filing and adjudication of a petition to determine factual innocence apply to all petitions currently filed or pending in the district court and any new petitions filed on or after June 1, 2012.
- (14)
- (a) As used in this Subsection (14) and in Subsection (15):
 - (i) "Married" means the legal marital relationship established between a man and a woman and as recognized by the laws of this state; and
 - (ii) "Spouse" means a person married to the petitioner at the time the petitioner was found guilty of the offense regarding which a petition is filed and who has since then been continuously married to the petitioner until the petitioner's death.

- (b) A claim for determination of factual innocence under this part is not extinguished upon the death of the petitioner.
- (c) If any payments are already being made to the petitioner under this part at the time of the death of the petitioner, or if the finding of factual innocence occurs after the death of the petitioner, the payments due under Section 78B-9-405 shall be paid according to the schedule under Section 78B-9-405 to the petitioner's surviving spouse. Payments cease upon the death of the spouse.
- (15) The spouse under Subsection (14) forfeits all rights to receive any payment under this part if the spouse is charged with a homicide established by a preponderance of the evidence that meets the elements of any felony homicide offense in Title 76, Chapter 5, Offenses Against the Person, except automobile homicide, applying the same principles of culpability and defenses as in Title 76, Utah Criminal Code, including Title 76, Chapter 2, Principles of Criminal Responsibility.

78B-9-404 Hearing upon petition -- Procedures -- Court determination of factual innocence.

- (1)
 - (a) In any hearing conducted under this part, the Utah attorney general shall represent the state.
 - (b) The burden is upon the petitioner to establish the petitioner's factual innocence by clear and convincing evidence.
- (2) The court may consider:
 - (a) evidence that was suppressed or would be suppressed at a criminal trial; and
 - (b) hearsay evidence, and may consider that the evidence is hearsay in evaluating its weight and credibility.
- (3) In making its determination the court shall consider, in addition to the evidence presented at the hearing under this part, the record of the original criminal case and at any postconviction proceedings in the case.
- (4) If the court, after considering all the evidence, determines by clear and convincing evidence that the petitioner:
 - (a) is factually innocent of one or more offenses of which the petitioner was convicted, the court shall order that those convictions:
 - (i) be vacated with prejudice; and
 - (ii) be expunged from the petitioner's record; or

- (2) An arbitrator has a continuing obligation to disclose to all parties to the agreement to arbitrate and arbitration proceeding and to any other arbitrators any facts that the arbitrator learns after accepting appointment which a reasonable person would consider likely to affect the impartiality of the arbitrator.
- (3) If an arbitrator discloses a fact required by Subsection (1) or (2) to be disclosed and a party timely objects to the appointment or continued service of the arbitrator based upon the fact disclosed, the objection may be a ground under Subsection 78B-11-124(1)(b) for vacating an award made by the arbitrator.
- (4) If the arbitrator did not disclose a fact as required by Subsection (1) or (2), upon timely objection by a party, the court under Subsection 78B-11-124(1)(b) may vacate an award.

- (2) The immunity afforded by this section supplements any immunity under other law.
- (3) The failure of an arbitrator to make a disclosure required by Section 78B-11-113 does not cause any loss of immunity under this section.
- (4) In a judicial, administrative, or similar proceeding, an arbitrator or representative of an arbitration organization is not competent to testify, and may not be required to produce records as to any statement, conduct, decision, or ruling occurring during the arbitration proceeding, to the same extent as a judge of a court of this state acting in a judicial capacity. This Subsection (4) does not apply:
 - (a) to the extent necessary to determine the claim of an arbitrator, arbitration organization, or representative of the arbitration organization against a party to the arbitration proceeding; or
 - (b) to a hearing on a motion to vacate an award under Subsection 78B-11-124(1)(a) or (b) if the movant establishes prima facie evidence that a ground for vacating the award exists.

78B-11-116 Arbitration process.

- (1) An arbitrator may conduct an arbitration in a manner the arbitrator considers appropriate for a fair and expeditious disposition of the proceeding. The authority conferred upon the arbitrator includes the power to hold conferences with the parties to the arbitration proceeding before the hearing and, among other matters, determine the admissibility, relevance, materiality, and weight of any evidence.
- (2) An arbitrator may decide a request for summary disposition of a claim or particular issue:
 - (a) if all interested parties agree; or
 - (b) upon request of one party to the arbitration proceeding if that party gives notice to all other parties to the proceeding, and the other parties have a reasonable opportunity to respond.
- (3) If an arbitrator orders a hearing, the arbitrator shall set a time and place and give notice of the hearing not less than five days before the hearing begins. Unless a party to the arbitration proceeding makes an objection to lack or insufficiency of notice not later than the beginning of the hearing, the party's appearance at the hearing waives the objection. Upon request of a party to the arbitration proceeding and for good cause shown, or upon the arbitrator's own initiative, the arbitrator may adjourn the hearing from time to time as necessary but may not postpone the hearing to a time later than that fixed by the agreement to arbitrate for making the award unless the parties to the arbitration proceeding consent to a later date. The arbitrator may hear and decide the controversy upon the evidence produced although a party who was duly notified of the arbitration proceeding did not appear. The court, on request, may direct the arbitrator to conduct the hearing promptly and render a timely decision.

- (4) At a hearing under Subsection (3), a party to the arbitration proceeding has a right to be heard, to present evidence material to the controversy, and to cross-examine witnesses appearing at the hearing.
- (5) If an arbitrator ceases or is unable to act during the arbitration proceeding, a replacement arbitrator must be appointed in accordance with Section 78B-11-112 to continue the proceeding and to resolve the controversy.

A subpoena must be served in the manner for service of subpoenas in a civil action and, upon motion to the court by a party to the arbitration proceeding or the arbitrator, enforced in the manner for enforcement of subpoenas in a civil action.
- (2) In order to make the proceedings fair, expeditious, and cost-effective, upon request of a party to or a witness in an arbitration proceeding, an arbitrator may permit a deposition of any witness to be taken for use as evidence at the hearing, including a witness who cannot be subpoenaed for or is unable to attend a hearing. The arbitrator shall determine the conditions under which the deposition is taken.
- (3) An arbitrator may permit any discovery the arbitrator decides is appropriate in the circumstances, taking into account the needs of the parties to the arbitration proceeding and other affected persons and the desirability of making the proceeding fair, expeditious, and cost-effective.
- (4) If an arbitrator permits discovery under Subsection (3), the arbitrator may order a party to the arbitration proceeding to comply with the arbitrator's discovery-related orders, issue subpoenas for the attendance of a witness and for the production of records and other evidence at a discovery proceeding, and take action against a noncomplying party to the extent a court could if the controversy were the subject of a civil action in this state.
- (5) An arbitrator may issue a protective order to prevent the disclosure of privileged information, confidential information, trade secrets, and other information protected from disclosure to the extent a court could if the controversy were the subject of a civil action in this state.

- (7) The court may enforce a subpoena or discovery-related order for the attendance of a witness within this state and for the production of records and other evidence issued by an arbitrator in connection with an arbitration proceeding in another state upon conditions determined by the court so as to make the arbitration proceeding fair, expeditious, and cost-effective. A subpoena or discovery-related order issued by an arbitrator in another state must be served in the manner provided by law for service of subpoenas in a civil action in this state and, upon motion to the court by a party to the arbitration proceeding or the arbitrator, enforced in the manner provided by law for enforcement of subpoenas in a civil action in this state.

- (8) Upon stipulation of the parties, or where a statute or the written agreement of the parties provides that discovery shall be conducted in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure, an attorney may issue a subpoena for the attendance of a witness and for the production of records and other evidence at any hearing. A subpoena must be served in the manner for service of subpoenas in a civil action and, upon motion to the court by a party to the arbitration proceeding, enforced in the manner for enforcement of subpoenas in a civil action.

A prevailing party may make a motion to the court for an expedited order to confirm the award under Section 78B-11-123, in which case the court shall summarily decide the motion. The court shall issue an order to confirm the award unless the court vacates, modifies, or corrects the award under Section 78B-11-124 or 78B-11-125.

The court may extend or the parties to the arbitration proceeding may agree on the record to extend the time. The court or the parties may do so within or after the time specified or ordered. A party waives any objection that an award was not timely made unless the party gives notice of the objection to the arbitrator before receiving notice of the award.

- (3) As to all remedies other than those authorized by Subsections (1) and (2), an arbitrator may order any remedies as the arbitrator considers just and appropriate under the circumstances of the arbitration proceeding. The fact that a remedy could not or would not be granted by the court is not a ground for refusing to confirm an award under Section 78B-11-123 or for vacating an award under Section 78B-11-124.
- (4) An arbitrator's expenses and fees, together with other expenses, must be paid as provided in the award.

 - (a) If the documentation of income required under Subsection (1) is not available, a verified representation of the other party's income by the moving party, based on the best evidence available, may be submitted.
 - (b) The evidence shall be in affidavit form and may only be offered after a copy has been provided to the other party in accordance with Utah Rules of Civil Procedure or Title 63G, Chapter 4, Administrative Procedures Act, in an administrative proceeding.
- (3) Upon the entry of an order in a proceeding to establish paternity or to establish, modify, or enforce a support order, each party shall file identifying information and shall update that information as changes occur with the court that conducted the proceeding.
 - (a) The required identifying information shall include the person's social security number, driver's license number, residential and mailing addresses, telephone numbers, the name, address and telephone number of employers, and any other data required by the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services.

78B-12-202 Determination of amount of support -- Rebuttable guidelines.

- (1)

- (a) Prospective support shall be equal to the amount granted by prior court order unless there has been a substantial change of circumstance on the part of the obligor or obligee or adjustment under Subsection 78B-12-210(6) has been made.
- (b) If the prior court order contains a stipulated provision for the automatic adjustment for prospective support, the prospective support shall be the amount as stated in the order, without a showing of a material change of circumstances, if the stipulated provision:
 - (i) is clear and unambiguous;
 - (ii) is self-executing;
 - (iii) provides for support which equals or exceeds the base child support award required by the guidelines; and
 - (iv) does not allow a decrease in support as a result of the obligor's voluntary reduction of income.
- (2) If no prior court order exists, a substantial change in circumstances has occurred, or a petition to modify an order under Subsection 78B-12-210(6) has been filed, the court determining the amount of prospective support shall require each party to file a proposed award of child support using the guidelines before an order awarding child support or modifying an existing award may be granted.
- (3) If the court finds sufficient evidence to rebut the guidelines, the court shall establish support after considering all relevant factors, including but not limited to:
 - (a) the standard of living and situation of the parties;
 - (b) the relative wealth and income of the parties;
 - (c) the ability of the obligor to earn;
 - (d) the ability of the obligee to earn;
 - (e) the ability of an incapacitated adult child to earn, or other benefits received by the adult child or on the adult child's behalf including Supplemental Security Income;
 - (f) the needs of the obligee, the obligor, and the child;
 - (g) the ages of the parties; and
 - (h) the responsibilities of the obligor and the obligee for the support of others.
- (4) When no prior court order exists, the court shall determine and assess all arrearages based upon the guidelines described in this chapter.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-12-203 Determination of gross income -- Imputed income.

- (1) As used in the guidelines, "gross income" includes prospective income from any source, including earned and nonearned income sources which may include salaries, wages, commissions, royalties, bonuses, rents, gifts from anyone, prizes, dividends, severance pay, pensions, interest, trust income, alimony from previous marriages, annuities, capital gains, Social Security benefits, workers' compensation benefits, unemployment compensation, income replacement disability insurance benefits, and payments from "nonmeans-tested" government programs.
- (2) Income from earned income sources is limited to the equivalent of one full-time 40-hour job. If and only if during the time prior to the original support order, the parent normally and consistently worked more than 40 hours at the parent's job, the court may consider this extra time as a pattern in calculating the parent's ability to provide child support.
- (3) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), specifically excluded from gross income are:
 - (a) cash assistance provided under Title 35A, Chapter 3, Part 3, Family Employment Program;

- (b) benefits received under a housing subsidy program, the Job Training Partnership Act, Supplemental Security Income, Social Security Disability Insurance, Medicaid, SNAP benefits, or General Assistance; and
 - (c) other similar means-tested welfare benefits received by a parent.
- (4)
- (a) Gross income from self-employment or operation of a business shall be calculated by subtracting necessary expenses required for self-employment or business operation from gross receipts. The income and expenses from self-employment or operation of a business shall be reviewed to determine an appropriate level of gross income available to the parent to satisfy a child support award. Only those expenses necessary to allow the business to operate at a reasonable level may be deducted from gross receipts.
 - (b) Gross income determined under this subsection may differ from the amount of business income determined for tax purposes.
- (5)
- (a) When possible, gross income should first be computed on an annual basis and then recalculated to determine the average gross monthly income.
 - (b) Each parent shall provide verification of current income. Each parent shall provide year-to-date pay stubs or employer statements and complete copies of tax returns from at least the most recent year unless the court finds the verification is not reasonably available. Verification of income from records maintained by the Department of Workforce Services may be substituted for pay stubs, employer statements, and income tax returns.
 - (c) Historical and current earnings shall be used to determine whether an underemployment or overemployment situation exists.
- (6) Gross income includes income imputed to the parent under Subsection (7).
- (7)
- (a) Income may not be imputed to a parent unless the parent stipulates to the amount imputed, the parent defaults, or, in contested cases, a hearing is held and the judge in a judicial proceeding or the presiding officer in an administrative proceeding enters findings of fact as to the evidentiary basis for the imputation.
 - (b) If income is imputed to a parent, the income shall be based upon employment potential and probable earnings as derived from employment opportunities, work history, occupation qualifications, and prevailing earnings for persons of similar backgrounds in the community, or the median earning for persons in the same occupation in the same geographical area as found in the statistics maintained by the Bureau of Labor Statistics.
 - (c) If a parent has no recent work history or a parent's occupation is unknown, income shall be imputed at least at the federal minimum wage for a 40-hour work week. To impute a greater income, the judge in a judicial proceeding or the presiding officer in an administrative proceeding shall enter specific findings of fact as to the evidentiary basis for the imputation.
 - (d) Income may not be imputed if any of the following conditions exist and the condition is not of a temporary nature:
 - (i) the reasonable costs of child care for the parents' minor children approach or equal the amount of income the custodial parent can earn;
 - (ii) a parent is physically or mentally unable to earn minimum wage;
 - (iii) a parent is engaged in career or occupational training to establish basic job skills; or
 - (iv) unusual emotional or physical needs of a child require the custodial parent's presence in the home.
- (8)

- (a) Gross income may not include the earnings of a minor child who is the subject of a child support award nor benefits to a minor child in the child's own right such as Supplemental Security Income.
- (b) Social Security benefits received by a child due to the earnings of a parent shall be credited as child support to the parent upon whose earning record it is based, by crediting the amount against the potential obligation of that parent. Other unearned income of a child may be considered as income to a parent depending upon the circumstances of each case.

Amended by Chapter 41, 2012 General Session

78B-12-204 Adjusted gross income.

- (1) As used in this chapter, "adjusted gross income" is the amount calculated by subtracting from gross income alimony previously ordered and paid and child support previously ordered.
- (2) The guidelines do not reduce the total child support award by adjusting the gross incomes of the parents for alimony ordered in the pending proceeding. In establishing alimony, the court shall consider that in determining the child support, the guidelines do not provide a deduction from gross income for alimony.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-12-205 Calculation of obligations.

- (1) Each parent's child support obligation shall be established in proportion to their adjusted gross incomes, unless the low income table is applicable. Except during periods of court-ordered parent-time as set forth in Section 78B-12-216, the parents are obligated to pay their proportionate shares of the base combined child support obligation. If physical custody of the child changes from that assumed in the original order, modification of the order is not necessary, even if only one parent is specifically ordered to pay in the order.
- (2) Except in cases of joint physical custody and split custody as defined in Section 78B-12-102 and in cases where the obligor's adjusted gross income is $1,050 or less monthly, the base child support award shall be determined as follows:
 - (a) combine the adjusted gross incomes of the parents and determine the base combined child support obligation using the base combined child support obligation table; and
 - (b) calculate each parent's proportionate share of the base combined child support obligation by multiplying the combined child support obligation by each parent's percentage of combined adjusted gross income.
- (3) In the case of an incapacitated adult child, any amount that the incapacitated adult child can contribute to the incapacitated adult child's support may be considered in the determination of child support and may be used to justify a reduction in the amount of support ordered, except that in the case of orders involving multiple children, the reduction shall not be greater than the effect of reducing the total number of children by one in the child support table calculation.
- (4) In cases where the monthly adjusted gross income of either parent is between $650 and $1,050, the base child support award shall be the lesser of the amount calculated in accordance with Subsection (2) and the amount calculated using the low income table. If the income and number of children is found in an area of the low income table in which no amount is shown, the base combined child support obligation table is to be used.
- (5) The base combined child support obligation table provides combined child support obligations for up to six children. For more than six children, additional amounts may be added to the base child support obligation shown. Unless rebutted by Subsection 78B-12-210(3), the amount ordered may not be less than the amount which would be ordered for up to six children.

- (6) If the monthly adjusted gross income of either parent is $649 or less, the tribunal shall determine the amount of the child support obligation on a case-by-case basis, but the base child support award may not be less than $30.
- (7) The amount shown on the table is the support amount for the total number of children, not an amount per child.
- (8) For all worksheets, income and support award figures shall be rounded to the nearest dollar.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-12-206 Income in excess of tables.

If the combined adjusted gross income exceeds the highest level specified in the table, an appropriate and just child support amount shall be ordered on a case-by-case basis, but the amount ordered may not be less than the highest level specified in the table for the number of children due support.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-12-207 Obligation -- Adjusted gross income used.

Adjusted gross income shall be used in calculating each parent's share of the base combined child support obligation. Only income of the natural or adoptive parents of the child may be used to determine the award under these guidelines.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-12-208 Joint physical custody -- Obligation calculations.

In cases of joint physical custody, the base child support award shall be determined as follows:

- (1) Combine the adjusted gross incomes of the parents and determine the base combined child support obligation using the base combined child support obligation table.
- (2) Calculate each parent's proportionate share of the base combined child support obligation by multiplying the base combined child support obligation by each parent's percentage of combined adjusted gross income. The amounts so calculated are the base child support obligation due from each parent for support of the children.
- (3) If the obligor's time with the children exceeds 110 overnights, the obligation shall be calculated further as follows:
 - (a) if the amount of time to be spent with the children is between 110 and 131 overnights, multiply the number of overnights over 110 by .0027, then multiply the result by the base combined child support obligation, and then subtract the result from the obligor's payment as determined by Subsection (2) to arrive at the obligor's payment; or
 - (b) if the amount of time to be spent with the children is 131 overnights or more, multiply the number of overnights over 130 by .0084, then multiply the result by the base combined child support obligation, and then subtract the result from the obligor's payment as determined in Subsection (3)(a) to arrive at the obligor's payment.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-12-209 Split custody -- Obligation calculations.

In cases of split custody, the base child support award shall be determined as follows:

- (1) Combine the adjusted gross incomes of the parents and determine the base combined child support obligation using the base combined child support obligation table. Allocate a portion of the calculated amount between the parents in proportion to the number of children for whom each parent has physical custody. The amounts so calculated are a tentative base child support obligation due each parent from the other parent for support of the child or children for whom each parent has physical custody.
- (2) Multiply the tentative base child support obligation due each parent by the percentage that the other parent's adjusted gross income bears to the total combined adjusted gross income of both parents.
- (3) Subtract the lesser amount in Subsection (2) from the larger amount to determine the base child support award to be paid by the parent with the greater financial obligation.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-12-210 Application of guidelines -- Use of ordered child support.

- (1) The guidelines in this chapter apply to any judicial or administrative order establishing or modifying an award of child support entered on or after July 1, 1989.
- (2)
 - (a) The guidelines shall be applied as a rebuttable presumption in establishing or modifying the amount of temporary or permanent child support.
 - (b) The rebuttable presumption means the provisions and considerations required by the guidelines, the award amounts resulting from the application of the guidelines, and the use of worksheets consistent with these guidelines are presumed to be correct, unless rebutted under the provisions of this section.
- (3) A written finding or specific finding on the record supporting the conclusion that complying with a provision of the guidelines or ordering an award amount resulting from use of the guidelines would be unjust, inappropriate, or not in the best interest of a child in a particular case is sufficient to rebut the presumption in that case. If an order rebuts the presumption through findings, it is considered a deviated order.
- (4) The following shall be considered deviations from the guidelines, if:
 - (a) the order includes a written finding that it is a deviation from the guidelines;
 - (b) the guidelines worksheet has:
 - (i) the box checked for a deviation; and
 - (ii) an explanation as to the reason; or
 - (c) the deviation is made because there were more children than provided for in the guidelines table.
- (5) If the amount in the order and the amount on the guidelines worksheet differ by $10 or more:
 - (a) the order is considered deviated; and
 - (b) the incomes listed on the worksheet may not be used in adjusting support for emancipation.
- (6)
 - (a) Natural or adoptive children of either parent who live in the home of that parent and are not children in common to both parties may at the option of either party be taken into account under the guidelines in setting a child support award, as provided in Subsection (7).
 - (b) Additional worksheets shall be prepared that compute the base child support award of the respective parents for the additional children. The base child support award shall then be subtracted from the appropriate parent's income before determining the award in the instant case.

- (7) In a proceeding to adjust or modify an existing award, consideration of natural or adoptive children born after entry of the order and who are not in common to both parties may be applied to mitigate an increase in the award but may not be applied:
 - (a) for the benefit of the obligee if the credit would increase the support obligation of the obligor from the most recent order; or
 - (b) for the benefit of the obligor if the amount of support received by the obligee would be decreased from the most recent order.
- (8)
 - (a) If a child support order has not been issued or modified within the previous three years, a parent, legal guardian, or the office may move the court to adjust the amount of a child support order.
 - (b) Upon receiving a motion under Subsection (8)(a), the court shall, taking into account the best interests of the child:
 - (i) determine whether there is a difference between the payor's ordered support amount and the payor's support amount that would be required under the guidelines; and
 - (ii) if there is a difference as described in Subsection (8)(b)(i), adjust the payor's ordered support amount to the payor's support amount provided in the guidelines if:
 - (A) the difference is 10% or more;
 - (B) the difference is not of a temporary nature; and
 - (C) the order adjusting the payor's ordered support amount does not deviate from the guidelines.
 - (c) A showing of a substantial change in circumstances is not necessary for an adjustment under this Subsection (8).
- (9)
 - (a) A parent, legal guardian, or the office may at any time petition the court to adjust the amount of a child support order if there has been a substantial change in circumstances. A change in the base combined child support obligation table set forth in Section 78B-12-301 is not a substantial change in circumstances for the purposes of this Subsection (9).
 - (b) For purposes of this Subsection (9), a substantial change in circumstances may include:
 - (i) material changes in custody;
 - (ii) material changes in the relative wealth or assets of the parties;
 - (iii) material changes of 30% or more in the income of a parent;
 - (iv) material changes in the employment potential and ability of a parent to earn;
 - (v) material changes in the medical needs of the child; or
 - (vi) material changes in the legal responsibilities of either parent for the support of others.
 - (c) Upon receiving a petition under Subsection (9)(a), the court shall, taking into account the best interests of the child:
 - (i) determine whether a substantial change has occurred;
 - (ii) if a substantial change has occurred, determine whether the change results in a difference of 15% or more between the payor's ordered support amount and the payor's support amount that would be required under the guidelines; and
 - (iii) adjust the payor's ordered support amount to that which is provided for in the guidelines if:
 - (A) there is a difference of 15% or more; and
 - (B) the difference is not of a temporary nature.
- (10) Notice of the opportunity to adjust a support order under Subsections (8) and (9) shall be included in each child support order.

Amended by Chapter 19, 2012 General Session

78B-12-211 Limitation on amount of support ordered.

- (1) There is no maximum limit on the base child support award that may be ordered using the base combined child support obligation table, using the low income table, or awarding medical expenses except under Subsection (2).
- (2) If amounts under either table as provided in Part 3, Tables, in combination with the award of medical expenses exceeds 50% of the obligor's adjusted gross income, or by adding the child care costs, total child support would exceed 50% of the obligor's adjusted gross income, the presumption under Section 78B-12-215 is rebutted.

78B-12-212 Medical expenses.

- (1)
 - (a) The court shall order that insurance for the medical expenses of the minor children be provided by a parent if it is available at a reasonable cost.
 - (b) The court shall, in accordance with Section 30-3-5, designate which health, hospital, or dental insurance plan is primary and which health, hospital, or dental insurance plan is secondary if at any time a dependent child is covered by both parents' health, hospital, or dental insurance plans.
- (2) In determining which parent shall be ordered to maintain insurance for medical expenses, the court or administrative agency may consider the:
 - (a) reasonableness of the cost;
 - (b) availability of a group insurance policy;
 - (c) coverage of the policy; and
 - (d) preference of the custodial parent.
- (3) The order shall require each parent to share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the children's portion of insurance unless the court finds good cause to order otherwise.
- (4) The parent who provides the insurance coverage may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the children's portion of the premium. In cases in which the parent does not have insurance but another member of the parent's household provides insurance coverage for the children, the parent may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the children's portion of the premium.
- (5) The children's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expense for the children shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case.
- (6) The order shall, in accordance with Subsection 30-3-5(1)(b), include a cash medical support provision that requires each parent to equally share all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses incurred for the dependent children, including but not limited to deductibles and copayments unless the court finds good cause to order otherwise.
- (7) The parent ordered to maintain insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, or to the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 601 et seq., upon initial enrollment of the dependent children, and thereafter on or before January 2 of each calendar year. The parent shall notify the other parent, or the Office of Recovery Services under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 601 et seq., of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days of the date the parent first knew or should have known of the change.

- (8) A parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment.
- (9) In addition to any other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring medical expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with Subsections (7) and (8).

Amended by Chapter 285, 2010 General Session

78B-12-213 Determination of parental liability.

- (1) The district court or administrative agency may issue an order determining the amount of a parent's liability for medical expenses of a dependent child when the parent:
 - (a) is required by a prior court or administrative order to:
 - (i) share those expenses with the other parent of the dependent child; or
 - (ii) obtain insurance for medical expenses but fails to do so; or
 - (b) receives direct payment from an insurer under insurance coverage obtained after the prior court or administrative order was issued.
- (2) If the prior court or administrative order does not specify what proportions of the expenses are to be shared, the district court may determine the amount of liability as may be reasonable and necessary.
- (3) This section applies to an order without regard to when it was issued.

78B-12-214 Child care expenses -- Expenses not incurred.

- (1) The child support order shall require that each parent share equally the reasonable work-related child care expenses of the parents.
- (2)
 - (a) If an actual expense for child care is incurred, a parent shall begin paying his share on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the child care expense, but if the child care expense ceases to be incurred, that parent may suspend making monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred, without obtaining a modification of the child support order.
 - (b)
 - (i) In the absence of a court order to the contrary, a parent who incurs child care expense shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a child care provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent.
 - (ii) In the absence of a court order to the contrary, the parent shall notify the other parent of any change of child care provider or the monthly expense of child care within 30 calendar days of the date of the change.
- (3) In addition to any other sanctions provided by the court, a parent incurring child care expenses may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if the parent incurring the expenses fails to comply with Subsection (2)(b).

78B-12-215 Child care costs.

- (1) The need to include child care costs in the child support order is presumed, if the custodial parent or the noncustodial parent, during extended parent-time, is working and actually incurring the child care costs.
- (2) The need to include child care costs is not presumed, but may be awarded on a case-by-case basis, if the costs are related to the career or occupational training of the custodial parent, or if otherwise ordered by the court in the interest of justice.
- (3) The court may impute a monthly obligation for child care costs when it imputes income to a parent who is providing child care for the minor child of both parties so that the parties are not incurring child care costs for the child. Any monthly obligation imputed under this section shall be applied towards any actual child care costs incurred within the same month for the child.

Amended by Chapter 467, 2013 General Session

78B-12-216 Reduction for extended parent-time.

- (1) The base child support award shall be:
 - (a) reduced by 50% for each child for time periods during which the child is with the noncustodial parent by order of the court or by written agreement of the parties for at least 25 of any 30 consecutive days of extended parent-time; or
 - (b) 25% for each child for time periods during which the child is with the noncustodial parent by order of the court, or by written agreement of the parties for at least 12 of any 30 consecutive days of extended parent-time.
- (2) If the dependent child is a client of cash assistance provided under Title 35A, Chapter 3, Part 3, Family Employment Program, any agreement by the parties for reduction of child support during extended parent-time shall be approved by the administrative agency.
- (3) Normal parent-time and holiday visits to the custodial parent shall not be considered extended parent-time.
- (4) For cases receiving IV-D child support services in accordance with Title 62A, Chapter 11, Part 1, Office of Recovery Services, Part 3, Child Support Services Act, and Part 4, Income Withholding in IV-D Cases, to receive the adjustment the noncustodial parent shall provide written documentation of the extended parent-time schedule, including the beginning and ending dates, to the Office of Recovery Services in the form of either a court order or a voluntary written agreement between the parties.
- (5) If the noncustodial parent complies with Subsection (4), owes no past-due support, and pays the full, unadjusted amount of current child support due for the month of scheduled extended parent-time and the following month, the Office of Recovery Services shall refund the difference from the child support due to the custodial parent or the state, between the full amount of current child support received during the month of extended parent-time and the adjusted amount of current child support due:
 - (a) from current support received in the month following the month of scheduled extended parent-time; or
 - (b) from current support received in the month following the month written documentation of the scheduled extended parent-time is provided to the office, whichever occurs later.
- (6) If the noncustodial parent complies with Subsection (4), owes past-due support, and pays the full, unadjusted amount of current child support due for the month of scheduled extended parent-time, the Office of Recovery Services shall apply the difference, from the child support due to the custodial parent or the state, between the full amount of current child support received during the month of extended parent-time and the adjusted amount of current child support due, to the past-due support obligation in the case.

- (7) For cases not receiving IV-D child support services in accordance with Title 62A, Chapter 11, Part 1, Office of Recovery Services, Part 3, Child Support Services Act, and Part 4, Income Withholding in IV-D Cases, any potential adjustment of the support payment during the month of extended visitation or any refund that may be due to the noncustodial parent from the custodial parent, shall be resolved between the parents or through the court without involvement by the Office of Recovery Services.
- (8) For purposes of this section the per child amount to which the abatement applies shall be calculated by dividing the base child support award by the number of children included in the award.
- (9) The reduction in this section does not apply to parents with joint physical custody obligations calculated in accordance with Section 78B-12-208.

78B-12-217 Award of tax exemption for dependent children.

- (1) No presumption exists as to which parent should be awarded the right to claim a child or children as exemptions for federal and state income tax purposes. Unless the parties otherwise stipulate in writing, the court or administrative agency shall award in any final order the exemption on a case-by-case basis.
- (2) In awarding the exemption, the court or administrative agency shall consider:
 - (a) as the primary factor, the relative contribution of each parent to the cost of raising the child; and
 - (b) among other factors, the relative tax benefit to each parent.
- (3) Notwithstanding Subsection (2), the court or administrative agency may not award any exemption to the noncustodial parent if that parent is not current in his child support obligation, in which case the court or administrative agency may award an exemption to the custodial parent.
- (4) An exemption may not be awarded to a parent unless the award will result in a tax benefit to that parent.

78B-12-218 Accountability of support provided to benefit child -- Accounting.

- (1) The court or administrative agency which issues the initial or modified order for child support may, upon the petition of the obligor, order prospectively the obligee to furnish an accounting of amounts provided for the child's benefit to the obligor, including an accounting or receipts.
- (2) The court or administrative agency may prescribe the frequency and the form of the accounting which shall include receipts and an accounting.
- (3) The obligor may petition for the accounting only if current on all child support that has been ordered.

78B-12-219 Adjustment when child becomes emancipated.

- (1) When a child becomes 18 years of age or graduates from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or if the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with Title 78A, Chapter 6, Part 8, Emancipation, the base child support award is automatically adjusted to the base combined child support obligation for the remaining number of children due child support, shown in the table that was used to establish the most recent order, using the incomes of the parties as specified in that order or the worksheets, unless otherwise provided in the child support order.

- (2) The award may not be reduced by a per child amount derived from the base child support award originally ordered.
- (3) If the incomes of the parties are not specified in the most recent order or the worksheets, the information regarding the incomes is not consistent, or the order deviates from the guidelines, automatic adjustment of the order does not apply and the order will continue until modified by the issuing tribunal. If the order is deviated and the parties subsequently obtain a judicial order that adjusts the support back to the date of the emancipation of the child, the Office of Recovery Services may not be required to repay any difference in the support collected during the interim.

 - (b) a court of another state does not have jurisdiction under Subsection (1)(a), or a court of the home state of the child has declined to exercise jurisdiction on the ground that this state is the more appropriate forum under Section 78B-13-207 or 78B-13-208; and
 - (i) the child and the child's parents, or the child and at least one parent or a person acting as a parent have a significant connection with this state other than mere physical presence; and
 - (ii) substantial evidence is available in this state concerning the child's care, protection, training, and personal relationships;
 - (c) all courts having jurisdiction under Subsection (1)(a) or (b) have declined to exercise jurisdiction on the ground that a court of this state is the more appropriate forum to determine the custody of the child under Section 78B-13-207 or 78B-13-208; or
 - (d) no state would have jurisdiction under Subsection (1)(a), (b), or (c).
- (2) Subsection (1) is the exclusive jurisdictional basis for making a child custody determination by a court of this state.
- (3) Physical presence of, or personal jurisdiction over, a party or a child is neither necessary nor sufficient to make a child custody determination.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-13-202 Exclusive, continuing jurisdiction.

- (1) Except as otherwise provided in Section 78B-13-204, a court of this state that has made a child custody determination consistent with Section 78B-13-201 or 78B-13-203 has exclusive, continuing jurisdiction over the determination until:
 - (a) a court of this state determines that neither the child, the child and one parent, nor the child and a person acting as a parent have a significant connection with this state and that substantial evidence is no longer available in this state concerning the child's care, protection, training, and personal relationships; or
 - (b) a court of this state or a court of another state determines that neither the child, nor a parent, nor any person acting as a parent presently resides in this state.
- (2) A court of this state that has exclusive, continuing jurisdiction under this section may decline to exercise its jurisdiction if the court determines that it is an inconvenient forum under Section 78B-13-207.
- (3) A court of this state that has made a child custody determination and does not have exclusive, continuing jurisdiction under this section may modify that determination only if it has jurisdiction to make an initial determination under Section 78B-13-201.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-13-203 Jurisdiction to modify determination.

Except as otherwise provided in Section 78B-13-204, a court of this state may not modify a child custody determination made by a court of another state unless a court of this state has jurisdiction to make an initial determination under Subsection 78B-13-201(1)(a) or (b) and:

- (1) the court of the other state determines it no longer has exclusive, continuing jurisdiction under Section 78B-13-202 or that a court of this state would be a more convenient forum under Section 78B-13-207; or
- (2) a court of this state or a court of the other state determines that neither the child, nor a parent, nor any person acting as a parent presently resides in the other state.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-13-204 Temporary emergency jurisdiction.

- (1) A court of this state has temporary emergency jurisdiction if the child is present in this state and the child has been abandoned or it is necessary in an emergency to protect the child because the child, or a sibling or parent of the child, is subjected to or threatened with mistreatment or abuse.
- (2) If there is no previous child custody determination that is entitled to be enforced under this chapter, and if no child custody proceeding has been commenced in a court of a state having jurisdiction under Sections 78B-13-201 through 78B-13-203, a child custody determination made under this section remains in effect until an order is obtained from a court of a state having jurisdiction under Sections 78B-13-201 through 78B-13-203. If a child custody proceeding has not been or is not commenced in a court of a state having jurisdiction under Sections 78B-13-201 through 78B-13-203, a child custody determination made under this section becomes a final determination, if:
 - (a) it so provides; and
 - (b) this state becomes the home state of the child.
- (3) If there is a previous child custody determination that is entitled to be enforced under this chapter, or a child custody proceeding has been commenced in a court of a state having jurisdiction under Sections 78B-13-201 through 78B-13-203, any order issued by a court of this state under this section shall specify in the order a period of time which the court considers adequate to allow the person seeking an order to obtain an order from the state having jurisdiction under Sections 78B-13-201 through 78B-13-203. The order issued in this state remains in effect until an order is obtained from the other state within the period specified or the period expires.
- (4) A court of this state that has been asked to make a child custody determination under this section, upon being informed that a child custody proceeding has been commenced, or a child custody determination has been made, by a court of a state having jurisdiction under Sections 78B-13-201 through 78B-13-203, shall immediately communicate with the other court. A court of this state that is exercising jurisdiction pursuant to Sections 78B-13-201 through 78B-13-203, upon being informed that a child custody proceeding has been commenced, or a child custody determination has been made by a court of another state under a statute similar to this section shall immediately communicate with the court of that state. The purpose of the communication is to resolve the emergency, protect the safety of the parties and the child, and determine a period for the duration of the temporary order.

78B-13-205 Notice -- Opportunity to be heard -- Joinder.

- (1) Before a child custody determination is made under this chapter, notice and an opportunity to be heard in accordance with the standards of Section 78B-13-108 shall be given to all persons entitled to notice under the law of this state as in child custody proceedings between residents of this state, any parent whose parental rights have not been previously terminated, and any person having physical custody of the child.

- (2) This chapter does not govern the enforceability of a child custody determination made without notice and an opportunity to be heard.
- (3) The obligation to join a party and the right to intervene as a party in a child custody proceeding under this chapter are governed by the law of this state as in child custody proceedings between residents of this state.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-13-206 Simultaneous proceedings.

- (1) Except as otherwise provided in Section 78B-13-204, a court of this state may not exercise its jurisdiction under this chapter if at the time of the commencement of the proceeding a proceeding concerning the custody of the child had been previously commenced in a court of another state having jurisdiction substantially in conformity with this chapter, unless the proceeding has been terminated or is stayed by the court of the other state because a court of this state is a more convenient forum under Section 78B-13-207.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided in Section 78B-13-204, a court of this state, before hearing a child custody proceeding, shall examine the court documents and other information supplied by the parties pursuant to Section 78B-13-209. If the court determines that a child custody proceeding was previously commenced in a court in another state having jurisdiction substantially in accordance with this chapter, the court of this state shall stay its proceeding and communicate with the court of the other state. If the court of the state having jurisdiction substantially in accordance with this chapter does not determine that the court of this state is a more appropriate forum, the court of this state shall dismiss the proceeding.
- (3) In a proceeding to modify a child custody determination, a court of this state shall determine whether a proceeding to enforce the determination has been commenced in another state. If a proceeding to enforce a child custody determination has been commenced in another state, the court may:
 - (a) stay the proceeding for modification pending the entry of an order of a court of the other state enforcing, staying, denying, or dismissing the proceeding for enforcement;
 - (b) enjoin the parties from continuing with the proceeding for enforcement; or
 - (c) proceed with the modification under conditions it considers appropriate.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-13-207 Inconvenient forum.

- (1) A court of this state that has jurisdiction under this chapter to make a child custody determination may decline to exercise its jurisdiction at any time if it determines that it is an inconvenient forum under the circumstances and that a court of another state is a more appropriate forum. The issue of inconvenient forum may be raised upon the court's own motion, request of another court, or motion of a party.
- (2) Before determining whether it is an inconvenient forum, a court of this state shall consider whether it is appropriate that a court of another state exercise jurisdiction. For this purpose, the court shall allow the parties to submit information and shall consider all relevant factors, including:
 - (a) whether domestic violence has occurred and is likely to continue in the future and which state could best protect the parties and the child;

- (b) the length of time the child has resided outside this state;
 - (c) the distance between the court in this state and the court in the state that would assume jurisdiction;
 - (d) the relative financial circumstances of the parties;
 - (e) any agreement of the parties as to which state should assume jurisdiction;
 - (f) the nature and location of the evidence required to resolve the pending litigation, including the testimony of the child;
 - (g) the ability of the court of each state to decide the issue expeditiously and the procedures necessary to present the evidence; and
 - (h) the familiarity of the court of each state with the facts and issues of the pending litigation.
- (3) If a court of this state determines that it is an inconvenient forum and that a court of another state is a more appropriate forum, it shall stay the proceedings upon condition that a child custody proceeding be promptly commenced in another designated state and may impose any other condition the court considers just and proper.

78B-13-208 Jurisdiction declined by reason of conduct.

- (1) Except as otherwise provided in Section 78B-13-204 or by other law of this state, if a court of this state has jurisdiction under this chapter because a person invoking the jurisdiction has engaged in unjustifiable conduct, the court shall decline to exercise its jurisdiction unless:
- (a) the parents and all persons acting as parents have acquiesced in the exercise of jurisdiction;
 - (b) a court of the state otherwise having jurisdiction under Sections 78B-13-201 through 78B-13-203 determines that this state is a more appropriate forum under Section 78B-13-207; or

- (2) If a court of this state declines to exercise its jurisdiction pursuant to Subsection (1), it may fashion an appropriate remedy to ensure the safety of the child and prevent a repetition of the wrongful conduct, including staying the proceeding until a child custody proceeding is commenced in a court having jurisdiction under Sections 78B-13-201 through 78B-13-203.
- (3) If a court dismisses a petition or stays a proceeding because it declines to exercise its jurisdiction pursuant to Subsection (1), it shall charge the party invoking the jurisdiction of the court with necessary and reasonable expenses including costs, communication expenses, attorney fees, investigative fees, expenses for witnesses, travel expenses, and child care during the course of the proceedings, unless the party from whom fees are sought establishes that the award would be clearly inappropriate. The court may examine the parties under oath as to details of the information furnished and other matters pertinent to the court's jurisdiction and the disposition of the case.
 - (4) Each party has a continuing duty to inform the court of any proceeding in this or any other state that could affect the current proceeding.
 - (5) If a party alleges in an affidavit or a pleading under oath that the health, safety, or liberty of a party or child would be put at risk by the disclosure of identifying information, that information shall be sealed and not disclosed to the other party or the public unless the court orders the disclosure to be made after a hearing in which the court takes into consideration the health, safety, or liberty of the party or child and determines that the disclosure is in the interest of justice.

- (4) If a party to a child custody proceeding who is outside this state is directed to appear under Subsection (2) or desires to appear personally before the court with or without the child, the court may require another party to pay reasonable and necessary travel and other expenses of the party so appearing and of the child.

78B-14-207 Determination of controlling child-support order.

- (1) If a proceeding is brought under this chapter and only one tribunal has issued a child support order, the order of that tribunal controls and shall be so recognized.
- (2) If a proceeding is brought under this chapter, and two or more child support orders have been issued by tribunals of this state, another state, or a foreign country with regard to the same obligor and same child, a tribunal of this state having personal jurisdiction over both the obligor and individual obligee shall apply the following rules and by order shall determine which order controls and shall be recognized:
 - (a) If only one of the tribunals would have continuing, exclusive jurisdiction under this chapter, the order of that tribunal controls.
 - (b) If more than one of the tribunals would have continuing, exclusive jurisdiction under this chapter, an order issued by a tribunal in the current home state of the child controls, or if an order has not been issued in the current home state of the child, the order most recently issued controls.
 - (c) If none of the tribunals would have continuing, exclusive jurisdiction under this chapter, the tribunal of this state shall issue a child support order, which controls.
- (3) If two or more child support orders have been issued for the same obligor and same child, upon request of a party who is an individual or that is a support enforcement agency, a tribunal of this state having personal jurisdiction over both the obligor and the obligee who is an individual shall determine which order controls under Subsection (2). The request may be filed with a registration for enforcement or registration for modification pursuant to Part 6, Registration, Enforcement, and Modification of Support Order, or may be filed as a separate proceeding.
- (4) A request to determine which is the controlling order shall be accompanied by a copy of every child support order in effect and the applicable record of payments. The requesting party shall give notice of the request to each party whose rights may be affected by the determination.
- (5) The tribunal that issued the controlling order under Subsection (1), (2), or (3) has continuing jurisdiction to the extent provided in Section 78B-14-205 or 78B-14-206.
- (6) A tribunal of this state that determines by order which is the controlling order under Subsection (2)(a), (b), or (3) that issues a new controlling order under Subsection (2)(c), shall state in that order:
 - (a) the basis upon which the tribunal made its determination;
 - (b) the amount of prospective support, if any; and
 - (c) the total amount of consolidated arrears and accrued interest, if any, under all of the orders after all payments made are credited as provided by Section 78B-14-209.
- (7) Within 30 days after issuance of an order determining which is the controlling order, the party obtaining the order shall file a certified copy of it in each tribunal that issued or registered an earlier order of child support. A party or support enforcement agency obtaining the order that fails to file a certified copy is subject to appropriate sanctions by a tribunal in which the issue of failure to file arises. The failure to file does not affect the validity or enforceability of the controlling order.

- (8) An order that has been determined to be the controlling order, or a judgment for consolidated arrears of support and interest, if any, made pursuant to this section shall be recognized in proceedings under this chapter.

- (1) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (4), the law of the issuing state or foreign country governs:
 - (a) the nature, extent, amount, and duration of current payments under a registered support order;
 - (b) the computation and payment of arrearages and accrual of interest on the arrearages under the support order; and
 - (c) the existence and satisfaction of other obligations under the support order.
- (2) In a proceeding for arrears under a registered support order, the statute of limitation of this state or of the issuing state or foreign country, whichever is longer, applies.
- (3) A responding tribunal of this state shall apply the procedures and remedies of this state to enforce current support and collect arrears and interest due on a support order of another state or a foreign country registered in this state.
- (4) After a tribunal of this or another state determines which is the controlling order and issues an order consolidating arrears, if any, a tribunal of this state shall prospectively apply the law of the state or foreign country issuing the controlling order, including its law on interest on arrears, on current and future support, and on consolidated arrears.

 - (d) of the amount of any alleged arrearages.
- (3) If the registering party asserts that two or more orders are in effect, a notice shall also:
 - (a) identify the two or more orders and the order alleged by the registering party to be the controlling order and the consolidated arrears, if any;
 - (b) notify the nonregistering party of the right to a determination of which is the controlling order;
 - (c) state that the procedures provided in Subsection (2) apply to the determination of which is the controlling order; and
 - (d) state that failure to contest the validity or enforcement of the order alleged to be the controlling order in a timely manner may result in confirmation that the order is the controlling order.

 - (a) the issuing tribunal lacked personal jurisdiction over the contesting party;
 - (b) the order was obtained by fraud;
 - (c) the order has been vacated, suspended, or modified by a later order;
 - (d) the issuing tribunal has stayed the order pending appeal;
 - (e) there is a defense under the law of this state to the remedy sought;

- (f) full or partial payment has been made;
 - (g) the statute of limitation under Section 78B-14-604 precludes enforcement of some or all of the alleged arrearages; or
 - (h) the alleged controlling order is not the controlling order.
- (2) If a party presents evidence establishing a full or partial defense under Subsection (1), a tribunal may stay enforcement of a registered support order, continue the proceeding to permit production of additional relevant evidence, and issue other appropriate orders. An uncontested portion of the registered support order may be enforced by all remedies available under the law of this state.

78B-14-611 Modification of child support order of another state.

- (1) If Section 78B-14-613 does not apply, upon petition a tribunal of this state may modify a child support order issued in another state which is registered in this state if, after notice and hearing, the tribunal finds that:
- (a) the following requirements are met:

- (i) neither the child, nor the obligee who is an individual, nor the obligor resides in the issuing state;
 - (ii) a petitioner who is a nonresident of this state seeks modification; and
 - (iii) the respondent is subject to the personal jurisdiction of the tribunal of this state; or
 - (b) this state is the residence of the child, or a party who is an individual, is subject to the personal jurisdiction of the tribunal of this state and all of the parties who are individuals have filed consents in a record in the issuing tribunal for a tribunal of this state to modify the support order and assume continuing, exclusive jurisdiction.
- (2) Modification of a registered child support order is subject to the same requirements, procedures, and defenses that apply to the modification of an order issued by a tribunal of this state and the order may be enforced and satisfied in the same manner.
- (3) A tribunal of this state may not modify any aspect of a child support order that may not be modified under the law of the issuing state, including the duration of the obligation of support. If two or more tribunals have issued child support orders for the same obligor and same child, the order that controls and shall be so recognized under Section 78B-14-207 establishes the aspects of the support order which are nonmodifiable.
- (4) In a proceeding to modify a child support order, the law of the state that is determined to have issued the initial controlling order governs the duration of the obligation of support. The obligor's fulfillment of the duty of support established by that order precludes imposition of a further obligation of support by a tribunal of this state.
- (5) On issuance of an order by a tribunal of this state modifying a child support order issued in another state, the tribunal of this state becomes the tribunal of continuing, exclusive jurisdiction.
- (6) Notwithstanding Subsections (1) through (5) and Subsection 78B-14-201(2), a tribunal of this state retains jurisdiction to modify an order issued by a tribunal of this state if:
- (a) one party resides in another state; and
 - (b) the other party resides outside the United States.

78B-14-612 Recognition of order modified in another state.

If a child support order issued by a tribunal of this state is modified by a tribunal of another state that assumed jurisdiction pursuant to the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, a tribunal of this state:

- (1) may enforce its order that was modified only as to arrears and interest accruing before the modification;
- (2) may provide appropriate relief for violations of its order which occurred before the effective date of the modification; and
- (3) shall recognize the modifying order of the other state, upon registration, for the purpose of enforcement.

78B-14-613 Jurisdiction to modify child support order of another state when individual parties reside in this state.

- (1) If all of the parties who are individuals reside in this state and the child does not reside in the issuing state, a tribunal of this state has jurisdiction to enforce and to modify the issuing state's child support order in a proceeding to register that order.

- (2) A tribunal of this state exercising jurisdiction under this section shall apply the provisions of Parts 1, General Provisions, and 2, Jurisdiction, this part, and the procedural and substantive law of this state to the proceeding for enforcement or modification. Parts 3, Civil Provisions of General Application, 4, Establishment of Support Order or Determination of Parentage, 5, Enforcement of Support Order Without Registration, 7, Support Proceedings Under Convention, and 8, Rendition, do not apply.

Within 30 days after issuance of a modified child support order, the party obtaining the modification shall file a certified copy of the order with the issuing tribunal that had continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over the earlier order, and in each tribunal in which the party knows the earlier order has been registered. A party who obtains the order and fails to file a certified copy is subject to appropriate sanctions by a tribunal in which the issue of failure to file arises. The failure to file does not affect the validity or enforceability of the modified order of the new tribunal having continuing, exclusive jurisdiction.

Rendition

78B-14-801 Grounds for rendition.

- (1) For purposes of this part, "governor" includes an individual performing the functions of governor or the executive authority of a state covered by this chapter.
- (2) The governor of this state may:
 - (a) demand that the governor of another state surrender an individual found in the other state who is charged criminally in this state with having failed to provide for the support of an obligee; or
 - (b) on the demand of the governor of another state, surrender an individual found in this state who is charged criminally in the other state with having failed to provide for the support of an obligee.
- (3) A provision for extradition of individuals not inconsistent with this chapter applies to the demand even if the individual whose surrender is demanded was not in the demanding state when the crime was allegedly committed and has not fled therefrom.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-14-802 Conditions of rendition.

- (1) Before making demand that the governor of another state surrender an individual charged criminally in this state with having failed to provide for the support of an obligee, the governor of this state may require a prosecutor of this state to demonstrate that at least 60 days previously the obligee had initiated proceedings for support pursuant to this chapter or that the proceeding would be of no avail.
- (2) If, under this chapter or a law substantially similar to this chapter, the governor of another state makes a demand that the governor of this state surrender an individual charged criminally in that state with having failed to provide for the support of a child or other individual to whom a duty of support is owed, the governor may require a prosecutor to investigate the demand and report whether a proceeding for support has been initiated or would be effective. If it appears that a proceeding would be effective but has not been initiated, the governor may delay honoring the demand for a reasonable time to permit the initiation of a proceeding.
- (3) If a proceeding for support has been initiated and the individual whose rendition is demanded prevails, the governor may decline to honor the demand. If the petitioner prevails and the individual whose rendition is demanded is subject to a support order, the governor may decline to honor the demand if the individual is complying with the support order.

Part 5 Genetic Testing

78B-15-501 Scope of part.

This part governs genetic testing of an individual to determine parentage, whether the individual:

- (1) voluntarily submits to testing; or
- (2) is tested pursuant to an order of a tribunal or a support-enforcement agency.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

- (1) Upon the motion of any party to the action, except as otherwise provided in this part and Part 6, Adjudication of Parentage, the tribunal shall order the child and other designated individuals to submit to genetic testing if the request for testing is supported by the sworn statement of a party to the proceeding:
 - (a) alleging paternity and stating facts establishing a reasonable probability of the requisite sexual contact between the individuals; or
 - (b) denying paternity and stating facts establishing a possibility that sexual contact between the individuals, if any, did not result in the conception of the child.
- (2) If a request for genetic testing of a child is made before birth, the tribunal may not order in-utero testing.
- (3) If two or more men are subject to an order for genetic testing, the testing may be ordered concurrently or sequentially.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-15-503 Requirements for genetic testing.

- (1) Genetic testing must be of a type reasonably relied upon by experts in the field of genetic testing and performed in a testing laboratory accredited by:
 - (a) the American Association of Blood Banks, or a successor to its functions;

- (b) the American Society for Histocompatibility and Immunogenetics, or a successor to its functions; or
 - (c) an accrediting body designated by the federal Secretary of Health and Human Services.
- (2) A specimen used in genetic testing may consist of one or more samples, or a combination of samples, of blood, buccal cells, bone, hair, or other body tissue or fluid. The specimen used in the testing need not be of the same kind for each individual undergoing genetic testing.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-15-504 Report of genetic testing.

- (1) A report of genetic testing must be in a record and signed under penalty of perjury by a designee of the testing laboratory. A report made under the requirements of this part is self-authenticating.
- (2) Documentation from the testing laboratory of the following information is sufficient to establish a reliable chain of custody that allows the results of genetic testing to be admissible without testimony:
- (a) the names and photographs of the individuals whose specimens have been taken;
 - (b) the names of the individuals who collected the specimens;
 - (c) the places and dates the specimens were collected;
 - (d) the names of the individuals who received the specimens in the testing laboratory;
 - (e) the dates the specimens were received; and
 - (f) the finger prints of the individuals whose specimens have been taken.

78B-15-505 Genetic testing results -- Rebuttal.

- (1) Under this chapter, a man is presumed to be identified as the father of a child if the genetic testing complies with this part and the results disclose that:
- (a) the man has at least a 99% probability of paternity, using a prior probability of 0.50, as calculated by using the combined paternity index obtained in the testing; and
 - (b) a combined paternity index of at least 100 to 1.
- (2) A man identified under Subsection (1) as the father of the child may rebut the genetic testing results only by other genetic testing satisfying the requirements of this part which:
- (a) excludes the man as a genetic father of the child; or
 - (b) identifies another man as the possible father of the child.
- (3) If an issue is raised as to whether the appropriate ethnic or racial group database was used by the testing laboratory, the testing laboratory will be asked to rerun the test using the correct ethnic or racial group database. If the testing laboratory does not have an adequate database, another testing laboratory may be engaged to perform the calculations.
- (4) If a presumption of paternity is not rebutted by a second test, the tribunal shall issue an order establishing paternity.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-15-506 Costs of genetic testing.

- (1) Subject to assessment of costs under Part 6, Adjudication of Parentage, the cost of initial genetic testing shall be advanced:

- (a) by a support-enforcement agency in a proceeding in which the support-enforcement agency is providing services;
 - (b) by the individual who made the request;
 - (c) as agreed by the parties; or
 - (d) as ordered by the tribunal.
- (2) In cases in which the cost is advanced by the support-enforcement agency, the agency may seek reimbursement from a man who is rebuttably identified as the father.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-15-507 Additional genetic testing.

The tribunal shall order additional genetic testing upon the request of a party who contests the result of the original testing. If the previous genetic testing identified a man as the father of the child under Section 78B-15-505, the tribunal may not order additional testing unless the party provides advance payment for the testing. If the tribunal orders a second genetic test in accordance with this section, the additional testing must be completed within 45 days of the tribunal's order or the requesting party's objection to the first test will be automatically denied. If failure to complete the test occurs because of noncooperation of the mother or unavailability of the child, the time will be tolled.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-15-508 Genetic testing when specimens not available.

- (1) Subject to Subsection (2), if a genetic-testing specimen is not available from a man who may be the father of a child, for good cause and under extraordinary circumstances the tribunal considers to be just, the tribunal may order the following individuals to submit specimens for genetic testing:
- (a) the parents of the man;
 - (b) brothers and sisters of the man;
 - (c) other children of the man and their mothers; and
 - (d) other relatives of the man necessary to complete genetic testing.
- (2) Issuance of an order under this section requires a finding that a need for genetic testing outweighs the legitimate interests of the individual sought to be tested.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-15-509 Deceased individual.

For good cause shown, the tribunal may order genetic testing of a deceased individual.

78B-15-510 Identical brothers.

- (1) The tribunal may order genetic testing of a brother of a man identified as the father of a child if the man is commonly believed to have an identical brother and evidence suggests that the brother may be the genetic father of the child.
- (2) If each brother satisfies the requirements as the identified father of the child under Section 78B-15-505 without consideration of another identical brother being identified as the father of the child, the tribunal may rely on nongenetic evidence to adjudicate which brother is the father of the child.

- (3) a man whose paternity of the child is to be adjudicated;
- (4) the support-enforcement agency or other governmental agency authorized by other law;
- (5) an authorized adoption agency or licensed child-placing agency;
- (6) a representative authorized by law to act for an individual who would otherwise be entitled to maintain a proceeding but who is deceased, incapacitated, or a minor; or
- (7) an intended parent under Part 8, Gestational Agreement.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-15-604 Personal jurisdiction.

- (1) An individual may not be adjudicated to be a parent unless the tribunal has personal jurisdiction over the individual.
- (2) A tribunal of this state having jurisdiction to adjudicate parentage may exercise personal jurisdiction over a nonresident individual, or the guardian or conservator of the individual, if the conditions prescribed in Section 78B-14-201 are fulfilled, or the individual has signed a declaration of paternity.
- (3) Lack of jurisdiction over one individual does not preclude the tribunal from making an adjudication of parentage binding on another individual over whom the tribunal has personal jurisdiction.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-15-605 Venue.

Venue for a judicial proceeding to adjudicate parentage is in the county of this state in which:

78B-15-606 No limitation -- Child having no declarant or adjudicated father.

A proceeding to adjudicate the parentage of a child having no declarant or adjudicated father may be commenced at any time. If initiated after the child becomes an adult, only the child may initiate the proceeding.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-15-607 Limitation -- Child having presumed father.

- (1) Paternity of a child conceived or born during a marriage with a presumed father as described in Subsection 78B-15-204(1)(a), (b), or (c), may be raised by the presumed father or the mother at any time prior to filing an action for divorce or in the pleadings at the time of the divorce of the parents.
 - (a) If the issue is raised prior to the adjudication, genetic testing may be ordered by the tribunal in accordance with Section 78B-15-608. Failure of the mother of the child to appear for testing may result in an order allowing a motherless calculation of paternity. Failure of the mother to make the child available may not result in a determination that the presumed father is not the father, but shall allow for appropriate proceedings to compel the cooperation of the mother. If the question of paternity has been raised in the pleadings in a divorce and the tribunal addresses the issue and enters an order, the parties are estopped from raising the issue again, and the order of the tribunal may not be challenged on the basis of material mistake of fact.
 - (b) If the presumed father seeks to rebut the presumption of paternity, then denial of a motion seeking an order for genetic testing or a decision to disregard genetic test results shall be based on a preponderance of the evidence.
 - (c) If the mother seeks to rebut the presumption of paternity, the mother has the burden to show by a preponderance of the evidence that it would be in the best interests of the child to disestablish the parent-child relationship.

- (2) For the presumption outside of marriage described in Subsection 78B-15-204(1)(d), the presumption may be rebutted at any time if the tribunal determines that the presumed father and the mother of the child neither cohabited nor engaged in sexual intercourse with each other during the probable time of conception.
- (3) The presumption may be rebutted by:
 - (a) genetic test results that exclude the presumed father;
 - (b) genetic test results that rebuttably identify another man as the father in accordance with Section 78B-15-505;
 - (c) evidence that the presumed father and the mother of the child neither cohabited nor engaged in sexual intercourse with each other during the probable time of conception; or
 - (d) an adjudication under this part.
- (4) There is no presumption to rebut if the presumed father was properly served and there has been a final adjudication of the issue.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-15-608 Authority to deny motion for genetic testing or disregard test results.

- (1) In a proceeding to adjudicate the parentage of a child having a presumed father or to challenge the paternity of a child having a declarant father, the tribunal may deny a motion seeking an order for genetic testing of the mother, the child, and the presumed or declarant father, or if testing has been completed, the tribunal may disregard genetic test results that exclude the presumed or declarant father if the tribunal determines that:
 - (a) the conduct of the mother or the presumed or declarant father estops that party from denying parentage; and
 - (b) it would be inequitable to disrupt the father-child relationship between the child and the presumed or declarant father.
- (2) In determining whether to deny a motion seeking an order for genetic testing or to disregard genetic test results under this section, the tribunal shall consider the best interest of the child, including the following factors:
 - (a) the length of time between the proceeding to adjudicate parentage and the time that the presumed or declarant father was placed on notice that he might not be the genetic father;
 - (b) the length of time during which the presumed or declarant father has assumed the role of father of the child;
 - (c) the facts surrounding the presumed or declarant father's discovery of his possible nonpaternity;
 - (d) the nature of the relationship between the child and the presumed or declarant father;
 - (e) the age of the child;
 - (f) the harm that may result to the child if presumed or declared paternity is successfully disestablished;
 - (g) the nature of the relationship between the child and any alleged father;
 - (h) the extent to which the passage of time reduces the chances of establishing the paternity of another man and a child-support obligation in favor of the child; and
 - (i) other factors that may affect the equities arising from the disruption of the father-child relationship between the child and the presumed or declarant father or the chance of other harm to the child.
- (3) If the tribunal denies a motion seeking an order for genetic testing or disregards genetic test results that exclude the presumed or declarant father, it shall issue an order adjudicating the presumed or declarant father to be the father of the child.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-15-609 Limitation -- Child having declarant father.

- (1) If a child has a declarant father, a signatory to the declaration of paternity or denial of paternity or a support-enforcement agency may commence a proceeding seeking to rescind the declaration or denial or challenge the paternity of the child only within the time allowed under Section 78B-15-306 or 78B-15-307.
- (2) A proceeding under this section is subject to the application of the principles of estoppel established in Section 78B-15-608.

- (1) service of process;
- (2) discovery; and
- (3) except as prohibited by Section 78B-15-502, collection of specimens for genetic testing.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-15-612 Minor as party -- Representation.

- (1) A minor is a permissible party, but is not a necessary party to a proceeding under this part.
- (2) The tribunal may appoint an attorney guardian ad litem under Sections 78A-2-703 and 78A-6-902, or a private attorney guardian ad litem under Section 78A-2-705, to represent a minor or incapacitated child if the child is a party.

Amended by Chapter 258, 2015 General Session

78B-15-613 Admissibility of results of genetic testing -- Expenses.

- (1) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (3), a record of a genetic-testing expert is admissible as evidence of the truth of the facts asserted in the report unless a party objects to its admission within 14 days after its receipt by the objecting party and cites specific grounds for exclusion. Unless a party files a timely objection, testimony shall be in affidavit form. The admissibility of the report is not affected by whether the testing was performed:

- (a) voluntarily or pursuant to an order of the tribunal; or
- (b) before or after the commencement of the proceeding.
- (2) A party objecting to the results of genetic testing may call one or more genetic-testing experts to testify in person or by telephone, video conference, deposition, or another method approved by the tribunal. Unless otherwise ordered by the tribunal, the party offering the testimony bears the expense for the expert testifying.
- (3) If a child has a presumed or declarant father, the results of genetic testing are inadmissible to adjudicate parentage unless performed:
 - (a) pursuant to Section 78B-15-503;
 - (b) within the time periods set forth in this chapter; and
 - (c) pursuant to a tribunal order or administrative process; or
 - (d) with the consent of both the mother and the presumed or declarant father.
- (4) If a child has an adjudicated father, the results of genetic testing are inadmissible to challenge paternity except as set forth in Sections 78B-15-607 and 78B-15-608.
- (5) Copies of bills for genetic testing and for prenatal and postnatal health care for the mother and child which are furnished to the adverse party not less than 10 days before the date of a hearing are admissible to establish:
 - (a) the amount of the charges billed; and
 - (b) that the charges were reasonable, necessary, and customary.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-15-614 Consequences of failing to submit to genetic testing.

- (1) An order for genetic testing is enforceable by contempt.
- (2) If an individual whose paternity is being determined fails to submit to genetic testing ordered by the tribunal, the tribunal for that reason may adjudicate parentage contrary to the position of that individual.
- (3) Genetic testing of the mother of a child is not a condition precedent to testing the child and a man whose paternity is being determined. If the mother is unavailable or fails to submit to genetic testing, the tribunal may order the testing of the child and every man who is potentially the father of the child.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-15-615 Admission of paternity authorized.

- (1) A respondent in a proceeding to adjudicate parentage may admit to the paternity of a child by filing a pleading to that effect or by admitting paternity under penalty of perjury when making an appearance or during a hearing.
- (2) If the tribunal finds that the admission of paternity satisfies the requirements of this section and finds that there is no reason to question the admission, the tribunal shall issue an order adjudicating the child to be the child of the man admitting paternity.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 3, 2008 General Session

78B-15-616 Temporary order.

 - (c) identified as the father through genetic testing under Section 78B-15-505;
 - (d) an alleged father who has failed to submit to genetic testing;
 - (e) shown by clear and convincing evidence to be the father of the child; or
 - (f) the mother of the child.
- (2) A temporary tribunal order may include provisions for custody and visitation as provided by other laws of this state.

78B-15-617 Rules for adjudication of paternity.

The tribunal shall apply the following rules to adjudicate the paternity of a child:

- (1) The paternity of a child having a presumed, declarant, or adjudicated father may be disproved only by admissible results of genetic testing excluding that man as the father of the child or identifying another man as the father of the child.
- (2) Unless the results of genetic testing are admitted to rebut other results of genetic testing, a man identified as the father of a child under Section 78B-15-505 must be adjudicated the father of the child, unless an exception is granted under Section 78B-15-608.
- (3) If the tribunal finds that genetic testing under Section 78B-15-505 neither identifies nor excludes a man as the father of a child, the tribunal may not dismiss the proceeding. In that event, the tribunal shall order further testing.
- (4) Unless the results of genetic testing are admitted to rebut other results of genetic testing, a man properly excluded as the father of a child by genetic testing must be adjudicated not to be the father of the child.

 - (b) all parties to an adjudication by a tribunal acting under circumstances that satisfy the jurisdictional requirements of Section 78B-14-201.
- (2) A child is not bound by a determination of parentage under this chapter unless:
 - (a) the determination was based on an unrescinded declaration of paternity and the declaration is consistent with the results of genetic testing;
 - (b) the adjudication of parentage was based on a finding consistent with the results of genetic testing and the consistency is declared in the determination or is otherwise shown; or
 - (c) the child was a party or was represented in the proceeding determining parentage by a guardian ad litem.
- (3) In a proceeding to dissolve a marriage, the tribunal is considered to have made an adjudication of the parentage of a child if the question of paternity is raised and the tribunal adjudicates according to Part 6, Adjudication of Parentage, and the final order:
 - (a) expressly identifies a child as a "child of the marriage," "issue of the marriage," or similar words indicating that the husband is the father of the child; or
 - (b) provides for support of the child by the husband unless paternity is specifically disclaimed in the order.
- (4) The tribunal is not considered to have made an adjudication of the parentage of a child if the child was born at the time of entry of the order and other children are named as children of the marriage, but that child is specifically not named.

The order must include the provisions required by Subsection (1) and measures and conditions, including those in Subsections (3), (4), and (5), that are reasonably calculated to prevent abduction of the child, giving due consideration to the custody, visitation, and parent-time rights of the parties.  - (c) require the respondent to obtain education on the potentially harmful effects to the child from abduction.
- (5) To prevent imminent abduction of a child, a court may:
 - (a) issue a warrant to take physical custody of the child under Section 78B-16-109 or the law of this state other than this chapter;

78B-16-109 Warrant to take physical custody of child.

- (1) If a petition under this chapter contains allegations, and the court finds that there is a credible risk that the child is imminently likely to be wrongfully removed, the court may issue an ex parte warrant to take physical custody of the child.
- (2) The respondent on a petition under Subsection (1) must be afforded an opportunity to be heard at the earliest possible time after the ex parte warrant is executed, but not later than the next judicial day unless a hearing on that date is impossible. In that event, the court shall hold the hearing on the first judicial day possible.
- (3) An ex parte warrant under Subsection (1) to take physical custody of a child must:
 - (a) recite the facts upon which a determination of a credible risk of imminent wrongful removal of the child is based;
 - (b) direct law enforcement officers to take physical custody of the child immediately;
 - (c) state the date and time for the hearing on the petition; and
 - (d) provide for the safe interim placement of the child pending further order of the court.
- (4) If feasible, before issuing a warrant and before determining the placement of the child after the warrant is executed, the court may order a search of the relevant databases of the National Crime Information Center system and similar state databases to determine if either the petitioner or respondent has a history of domestic violence, stalking, or child abuse or neglect.
- (5) The petition and warrant must be served on the respondent when or immediately after the child is taken into physical custody.
- (6) A warrant to take physical custody of a child, issued by this state or another state, is enforceable throughout this state. If the court finds that a less intrusive remedy will not be effective, it may authorize law enforcement officers to enter private property to take physical custody of the child. If required by exigent circumstances, the court may authorize law enforcement officers to make a forcible entry at any hour.
- (7) If the court finds, after a hearing, that a petitioner sought an ex parte warrant under Subsection (1) for the purpose of harassment or in bad faith, the court may award the respondent reasonable attorney fees, costs, and other reasonable expenses and losses arising out of the issuance of the ex parte warrant.
- (8) This chapter does not affect the availability of relief allowed under the law of this state other than this chapter.
